FUNNY.

"Between Kenosha and Milwaukee, an Insurance Agent entered a car, and having issued tickets to several of the passengers, approached an elderly lady, who, it afterwards appeared, was deaf.

"Madam, would you like to insure against accidents?" inspired the agent.

"I'm going to Oskosh to visit my darter, who is married up there and has got a baby."

The agent raised his voice a little: "Would you like to insure your life against accidents?"

"She's been married two years and a half. It's a gal."

Agent still louder: "I'm an insurance agent, madam; don't you want your life insured?"

"Oh, I didn't understand you." said the old lady. "(No; her name is Johnson; my name is Evans, and I am a crocheter."

The agent vanished.

TO BE LOVED.

There is nothing so sweet as to be loved, except loving. By love I mean, of course, the true, pure love which is not a thing of the senses, but of the soul—love that is the outgrowth of goodness.

What will not one do to win or keep such tenderness! What will not one risk, or dare to forsake for it! Is any journey long that has a love-kiss at the end of it?—any duty hard that counts the bonds between two hearts! To be truly loved is the great reward life has to offer. And any one who has a heart and doesn't mind showing it, who can put aside selfishness and be true to others, can win love.

To have people temporarily in love with you needs only beauty. To be beloved, one must have truth, tenderness, constancy and goodness. Be good and do good, and, despite all that is said about this world's ingratitude, some one will love you.

When men receive information that they may possibly be among the heirs of some deceased rich man, they immediately become interested and go to work searching all the family records to decide the matter. When God tells men that they may become joint heirs to our Lord Jesus Christ, to an inheritance incorruptible, undefiled and unfading, they listen to it as idle tales, or complain of the tediousness and style of him who God sends to tell them about it.

A real christian seldom sees a defect in his neighbor. A pure lake reflects the beautiful sky, the clouds and the whole overhanging trees, but when it is ruffled it reflects nothing that is pure. A bad man seldom sees a good trait in the character of his neighbor.

A lady walking a few days since on the esplanade at Brighton, asked a sailor, whom she met, why a ship was called "she." The son of Neptune ungantly replied that it was because the rigging cost so much.

THE ADVERTISER.

DAHLONEGA, GA.
SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1876.
COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES
OF THE NORTH GEORGIA
AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

SUNDAY, JULY 2ND.

The commencement sermon was preached by Rev. J. D. Hammond, and was very eloquent and entertaining. It was full of rich thought gathered from the broad fertile fields of the scripture, and may well be characterized as an intellectual feast. A very heavy rain in the afternoon prevented services at the church at night.

MONDAY, JULY 3RD.

Ere the gray dawn began to break upon the horizon the clatter of one hundred bells, of various sizes, mingled with the merry laugh and happy shouts of the North Georgia boys, aroused the sleeping citizens of the quiet village from their sweet morning slumbers, admonishing them that the "golden footed hours," with their majestic tread upon the heavy wheel of time, had rolled around another year, and the longed for state occasion of the N. G. A. College was at hand.

At nine o'clock the ringing of the bell brought a large assembly of people to the arbor prepared at the Baptist church. The exercises were opened by recitation from scripture, prayer and song by the school.

The examination of the primary department, recitation of pieces by the little pupils, and declamation by boys in more advanced classes were continued during the day. The little ones, who have been under the efficient direction of Miss Mattie Boyd, did their whole duty, and acquitted themselves to the satisfaction of all present, showing very clearly and forcibly that the zeal, the faithfulness, the untiring and unceasing labors of their instructress for the past ten months have not been in vain.

MONDAY NIGHT.

The exercises were opened with music, and when the curtain was raised our eyes fell upon one of the loveliest scenes imaginable. There they sat, the lovely little jewels, the mothers delight and the fathers hope. At the close of this delightful entertainment of recitations, hymns, etc., by the little ones, which showed the energy and zeal of Miss Mattie Boyd, their efficient teacher, Miss Aurora Strong read her matchless eulogy on the faculty and school-mates. As language fails us to give any adequate conceptions of its merits, we will only say to our readers, to watch out for it in the next issue of THE ADVERTISER.

TUESDAY.

The exercises of more advanced classes were continued as far as practicable, between the gentle showers, which disturbed to a great extent, the business of the day. At eleven o'clock the members of the Alumni Society were seated upon the rostrum in front of the large attentive auditory assembled under the leaf embowered arbor, to transact business of their annual meeting. Mr. Frank L. Haralson, who was previously chosen to deliver the oration, was introduced by the President. He arose and held the audience spell-bound for twenty-five minutes by the soft, clear, tone of voice in the well prepared address on the "Duties of the Hour." The proceedings of the meeting will be published as soon as practicable.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

Notwithstanding the inclemency and disagreeable aspects of weather, the young ladies of the "Corona Hec-dora Society" served the large audience with one of the most interesting entertainments it has ever been our happy lot to witness. Want of space forbids our entering into details, suffice it to say all were delighted.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4TH.

After the examination of some of the most advanced classes, Prof. Henry Perry, the orator of the day, was introduced by Mr. J. M. Williams, and proceeded to address the two societies, by whom he had been previously elected, upon the grand subject, "The Powers of the Mind." We can only say that it was one of the best of the centennial year.

On Wednesday evening, the last of the commencement exercises, the enthusiasm of the students was at its highest, and the public seemed more determined to make the most of the few remaining hours. The arrangement of the exercises were fine, the younger members of the school reading and speaking on the first days, reserving the last for the more mature and advanced. The young men, upon whom devolved the duty of speaking, were prepared. Everything was original, and the zeal with which the pieces had been committed to memory, and the grace with which they were declaimed, spoke volumes for the institution and the scholars. Every branch of knowledge was searched, and the well selected subjects and well directed thought flowed with unceasing relish upon the attentive crowd. We cannot particularize, but state that the depth of thought, and beauty of expression, was unsurpassed by any institution. Even Athens, Oxford or Moscow could not, with all their dignity of years, produce a more pleasant literary treat. The splendid physical appearance of the young men, coupled with the variety of manners and pleasing address, language and deep thought, was sufficient to stamp the North Georgia Agricultural College as a place where a student can meet full development. Not once did our eyes see the sinking chest, bending shoulders or pallid expression, and their visage which marks the majority of the young men of the schools of the State, but, on the contrary, the heavy weight and roundness of form bespoke the effect that study has upon boys in the mountains. In mind no institution surpasses them, and the remark made about the body will be appreciated when the military commander comes.

This fourth commencement closed grandly. The well prepared address accompanying the "exquisite gold headed cane" presented to their beloved and venerated teacher, and his response constitute a scene that is indelible.

The institution which launched its trembling form upon the literary ocean four years ago, amid the doubts, hopes, and fears of her friends has braved the storm and tempest. There are men at her helm who will never be completely until thousands of young Georgians have been educated. Her success is assured, beyond doubt. Other institutions are ahead of her in point of time, but not of ability.

In this Centennial year we have celebrated the fourth commencement of our beloved institution. May the love of liberty, the principles of freedom, the claims of honor, integrity, purity, and religion, ever animate the youths who have been thrown here together. May the influence for good they exert compensate the proud old State of Georgia for her generosity thus far bestowed, and encourage her General Assembly to still further endow the College.

The commencement was a success, and may the remembrances linger around us, like the sweet odor of roses around the form of beauty.

PORTER SPRINGS, July 4th, 1876.

Editor Advertiser.—In your next issue please state, for the benefit of our unknown inebriate friend, that the article which appeared in the "Signal" from Porter Springs, did not, by any manner of means, have an individual allusion to his majesty, and was in no way personal in its nature. However, a "guilty conscience needeth no accuser." If our friends' conscience condemns him and he feels within his heart that he has violated the commandment the article then applies to him, and we hope will do him good. Let us exhort you, our unknown friend, to repentance. Remember the Sabbath is sacred and made hallowed by God.

In regard to that $2,500 transaction, we would like to know what that had to do with rolling ten pins on Sunday? But to satisfy the craving curiosity of an estranged, sensitive and misguided being, we will state we must have become minus that 2,500 by not being a tried and faithful servant in the employ of A. T. Stewart ten years prior to the death and testament of that worthy, as this is the only way by any direct means of our own according to the best of our knowledge and belief, we could have possibly become minus of that much of the evil root.

LUMPKIN COUNTY PUBLIC MEETING.

At a public meeting held at Dahlonega, Ga., on the 4th day of July, 1876, for the purpose of electing delegates to the Democratic Convention to be held in Atlanta, on the 2nd day of August, next, to nominate a candidate for Governor and electors for President and Vice-President of the U. S.

On motion of Hon. W. H. McAttee Col. R. H. Moore was made permanent Chairman of the meeting of the party for the present year, and J. K. Bearden, Secretary.

The object of the present meeting being explained, Maj. James Kelly moved the appointment of a committee of ten persons to report matter for the action of the meeting, which motion prevailed and the following persons, to-wit: Dr. M. H. Van Dyke, Chairman, W. R. Criss, J. H. Moore, J. S. P. Jones, John Poor, Jonathan Hollified, A. L. Garvin and R. C. Burns.

Col. Wier Boyd introduced and read to the meeting the following resolutions, which were referred to the foregoing committee.

Resolved, That we hail with good cheer and approval, the nomination of Samuel J. Tilden, for the office of President of the United States, and of Thomas A. Hendrix for Vice President, by the representatives of the Democratic party recently assembled in convention at St. Louis, and hereby ratify said nomination and pledge this ticket our hearty support.

Resolved, That we believe the time has fully come when the mal-administration of the party in power should be plucked, abuses reformed and corruption purged out, and that this cannot be effected without a thorough change in the administration of the General Government in the election of patriotic honest men to the offices of the Government, who are not contaminated with the corrupt practices, which have prevailed for the last sixteen years.

Resolved, That whilst we would not disparage the character or claims of any of Georgia's noble sons for the office of Governor of our State, we hereby express our preference for A. H. Colquitt, but should he not be the choice of the convention we will give our earnest support to the nominee of said convention.

Resolved, That Col. Wier Boyd and W. P. Price be, and they are hereby appointed delegates to represent the county of Lumpkin in the Democratic convention to be held in Atlanta, Ga., on the 2nd day of August, next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor and electors for President and Vice-President, with power, on the part of each of said delegates, to appoint proxy if they, or neither of them, cannot attend in person.

The committee, after a short absence, returned and reported the foregoing resolutions and recommended their adoption with an amendment filling the blank with the names of Col. W. P. Price and Col. Wier Boyd as delegates.

The resolutions were received and adopted.

On motion of Col. W. P. Price it was resolved that the Secretary of this meeting to furnish both of our town papers, the Signal and Tan Advertiser, with a copy of the proceedings of this meeting, and that the Gainesville Eagle and Atlanta papers be requested to copy.

Also Proprietors of the following popular remedies:
PONCE DE LEON BITTERS.
A pleasant remedy for Indigestion and other diseases arising from a disordered condition of the stomach, and of decided advantage to persons recovering from any debilitating sickness.

ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GIN GEAR.

A pure and concentrated essence of Jamaica Ginger, and for sick headache, colic, nervous debility, cholera morbus, &c., is an invaluable remedy.

EUREKA NERVE AND BONE LINIMENT.

A sovereign remedy for bruises, sprains, cramps, stings of insects, stiffness of the joints, neuralgia, etc. While I do not claim that it will cure all chronic cases of rheumatism, I do say that it will give quick relief, and I have information of perfect cures, having been made by the use of it.

HOWARD'S WORM CONFECTIONS.

A pleasant, safe and effectual remedy for worms—the confections not having any unpleasant taste. Children are fond of them.

HOWARD'S IMPROVED CON- DITION POWDERS.

For horses cattle and hogs. Horses low in flesh, hide bound, and if bad health generally, will be largely benefited by the use of these powders. Given to hogs occasionally they will keep in good health and not be liable to cholera.

LOCAL NEWS.

J. W. Woodward, H. D. Gurley & Bro., and Sifton & Bro., will receive and receipt for subscription to the ADVERTISER. All contracts made by these gentlemen for subscription, advertisements or job work, will be strictly carried out by us.

Subscribe to THE ADVERTISER and ease your conscience.

The public meeting of last week reminded us of old times.

Some pork in town on Saturday. It went like hot cakes.

We can plainly see that we will have to enlarge in a very short time.

Pretty girls—and the most of them—oh me!—in Dahlonega this week.

Almost every mail from Gainesville brings pleasure seekers to this section.

The programme of the commencement exercises will be found on our first page.

That is right, gentlemen, subscribe to THE ADVERTISER. We will give you a good paper.

All matter intended for publication in THE ADVERTISER should be handed in on Thursday.

We notice a large number of visitors in attendance upon the "North-east Georgia Centennial."

All kinds of produce taken for subscription to THE ADVERTISER. We mean to live and let live.

District Meeting commenced here on last Thursday. We will notice at more length next week.

We have had more personals than we could notice this week. Wish we could have as lively time the year round.

Messrs. M. G. Boyd and F. L. Haralson's professional cards will be found under the caption of cards on our first page.

The Gainesville mail now arrives at two o'clock p.m., which makes it much more convenient to passengers as well as others.

The weather for the past week has been quite showery, making it somewhat disagreeable for the commencement exercises.

We would be pleased if our friends throughout the country would keep us posted in the local news throughout their immediate neighborhoods.

We call the especial attention of our readers to the advertisement of Dabney & Wall, wholesale grocers, Atlanta, Ga., which will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Our sanctum was honored with a visit by Messrs. M. G. Boyd and F. L. Haralson, of Cleveland, on Wednesday. Also by Mr. Henry Perry and W. R. Findley, of Gainesville. Call again gentlemen.

We noticed on our streets this week, Mr. Dan Howell and family; also his father and mother; besides quite a number of young men, of Auraria. All of whom were here to witness the exercises of the college.

Quite a crowd gathered around to hear a negro play a fiddle, which he claimed to be one hundred and three years old, while another danced, on Saturday evening last. It reminded us of olden times, when negroes were under bondage—a time when the larger portion of them seemed to enjoy themselves a great deal better than at the present time.

Why is THE ADVERTISER like a wife? Because every one should have one of his own and not borrow his neighbors.

Yes, we can do, and are prepared to do all kinds of job work in the neatest style and upon the most reasonable terms. Send along your orders.

The proceedings of the county convention will be found elsewhere. Messrs. Price and Boyd are the delegates appointed to represent us in the Gubernatorial convention.

In our list of advertisers last week, we failed to mention the names of Dr. Howard, of Dahlonega, and Mr. J. P. Champion, of Gainesville. We now direct the reader's attention to their cards on the first page.

We were honored with a call, on Tuesday last, from the gentlemanly publisher of the Gainesville Southern, Mr. W. H. Craig, our "devil" associate of other days. Call and see us often Harry, we will always be glad to see you.

A stroke of lightning on last Wednesday, knocked down Mr. John Huff, Mr. David Pruitt, together with several other gentlemen, who were working in the cut down at the mines. All were senseless for a short time.

We see from the Gainesville Eagle that the Council of that city have decided to destroy $6,000 of one city currency at their next meeting. All our citizens having detached or ragged bills, should exchange it for new before that time.

A serious accident occurred on Monday last. As Mr. James Jones was driving into town in some way he was thrown from his wagon, and received some serious, but not fatal, wounds. His cheek bone was broken, and one rib displaced, with other bruises.

In our article of last week, on the improvement, etc., of our town, we failed to mention our blacksmith shops. One is kept near the jail, by Mr. J. A. Wootton, and the other near Mr. McAfee's residence, on Clarksville Street, by Mr. Anly Morrison. Both are excellent workmen.

Mr. M. G. Boyd, a rising young lawyer of the mountains, is now very prominently spoken of as a candidate for the Senate from this District. We hope that Mr. Boyd will succeed in his campaign, believing that he will faithfully represent all the interests of the District. Lumpkin will, no doubt, give him a rousing majority. Success to you M. G. MANY VOTERS.

The time to advertise is when buyers are reluctant, hence sellers should be active. It is neither cheap or sensible to sit behind your counters and wait for the bustle of trade to revive. When business is dull that is the very time to advertise. In the first place, that is when you most need to advertise; and in the second, that is when people devote more time to reading newspapers and when your advertisement consequently is most generally seen.

We were much pleased to meet one of the oldest and most honored citizens of Atlanta, on our streets yesterday, in the person of Mr. John Glenn.

Also, Judge Geo. D. Rice, of Gainesville, and Dr. J. A. Moody, of White county.

Capt. Asbury, of White county, is in town, who in forms us that he is a candidate for the Senate from this District.

We are always glad to meet our old time honored friends.

Auraria is a thriving as well as a beautiful little town, and a good deal of business is done there. There are two stores, one kept by Mr. Dan Howell and the other by Mr. J. E. Wood, both doing a good business. Mr. Howell has recently finished his large and beautiful store house, which is an ornament to the town, and is now erecting a handsome residence. There are also several rich gold mines in full operation, near the village, which makes it much more prosperous.

The wife of Mr. A. L. Wimpy died at her residence, in this county, on Tuesday last, leaving a husband and six little children, and many relatives and friends, to mourn her irreparable loss. While we breathe the sad word farewell, hope rises within us that we will meet again.

Where all is peace and love;
Where friends shall meet and part no more,
In the Saviour's home above.

Farewell to husband babes and all,
Gently sleep my icy hand;
Then in death her voice did fall,
As she neared the spirit land."

Our readers will observe the improved appearance of our paper, which we will endeavor to make weekly, and if encouraged by a liberal patronage, we will insure you a good readable paper. We have set out with a firm determination to reach the annual of an appreciative community. Cash is our watch word—our motto, seventy-five cents per annum, strictly in advance. We have already received a goodly number of subscribers, but we want and must have four or five hundred more good paying ones. We return many thanks to those who have already subscribed, and also to our friends who have been patronizing us in the way of advertising and job work. We have already the largest number of town subscribers of any paper published in Dahlonega.

During our recent visit to Atlanta, we visited the mammoth establishment of Silvey & Dougherty, and while we say nothing disparagingly of other houses in the city in their line of business, they eclipse all in the Dry Goods and Notion line. We went all through their establishment and found everything arranged so nice—render you can find there from a pair of a new skirt and all goods in endless variety—dress goods of every description, Georgia made goods, domestics, such as sheetings, shirtings, checks and cotton yarn. They desire to be remembered by their old customers throughout the mountain country. Their fall stock will be in early. Their advertisement will be found in another column. Call and see them when you visit the city.

Mining Dots.

Our much esteemed friend, Mr. J. W. Weaver, superintendent of the Baggs Branch mine, situated near Auraria, paid us a visit this week. We are pleased to learn from him that the mine is paying well. He showed us some very nice specimens which he extracted from the vein last week. Great success to you John.

Only eighteen and three-fourth ounces of gold were made at the little Lawrence mill last week, owing to so much loose dirt, old timbers, &c., having to be taken out of the shaft.

We are reliably informed that Dr. M. H. VanDyke disposed of some valuable gold mining property, lying Northeast of this place, last week, to some parties in New York, who will be on in a short time to commence operating.

A gentleman informed us, who visited the Jones Vein last week, in company with Hon. W. H. McAfee, that from one painful of dirt from near the vein, they picked out four teen pennyweights of clean gold, besides the specimens, etc.

Mr. E. E. Crisson informs us that his father will be ready to go to blasting at the old Boley Field vein, in about a week.

We learn that Col. White, on the Chestatee river, will be ready to go to washing gold in a short time.

T. J. Helm's work on the Etowah, is progressing finely. They are now at work building a dipping wheel, and expect to unwater by this means a large amount of territory.

At the Battle Branch mine they are still driving on the vein to the Hockenhull shoot.

The Pigeon Roost mill will commence running to-day.

FRONTIERSMAN AND SCOUT.

Our attention was directed one day last week, and our curiosity excited, to know who a certain small statured, long haired and satired looking individual, really was. We made some inquiry, and he very readily informed us that he was Cherokee Charley. He speaks fluently of his adventures with the Indians in the Western countries. He is a Cherokee and has spent most of his time for the last few years among the wild tribes of the plains from Mexico to Dekotah Territory, hunting, trapping and scouting, and occasionally having a brush with the wild Indians, the proof of which he bears scars all over his body. He visits his relatives in Georgia—has been here for about eight months, and comes to this section to look after some mineral interests. Jack Rodgers, near Dalton, is his uncle, also H. C. Rodgers, of Milton county.

He has a large bundle of pieces published in the different newspapers all over the Western country, and from there on the way here, he went from here out to the Davis settlement, from thence to Cherokee, N. C. He will return to the West about the last of September, and will pass here in buckskin suit and pony. Charley is a very good looking young man, with long curly hair, and a fine face. This is his first visit to the States, and to the homes of his old ancestors. Charley will pass here as he starts to make his plunge into the far Western wilds. Charley, although having received nothing but a frontier education, is very much of a gentleman, and understands the propriety of life as well as the best. He is twenty-three years of age. He has come in contact with the following tribe of Indians: Chayanes, Rapahoes, Kiowas, Camanches, Sioux, and several other tribes, which ranges through Mexico, Arizona and Decotah.

SALE DAY.

On Tuesday last the following property was disposed of by the Sheriff. The Loud Mining Boat was bid off by Col. Price, at fifty dollars. The Garvin estate by A. S. Wheelchel, at three hundred dollars. The sale of the Bracket property was stopped by an injunction from District Court.

WHITE COUNTY DOTS.

A meeting has been called by W. B. Bell, Chairman of the Executive Committee, to elect delegates to the convention to be held in Atlanta in next month. The 15th is the day appointed, and every citizen should come out. Colquitt seems to be the man in White. Many of the citizens say that he was brave in war, and has ever been just under all circumstances in war and peace.

The Nacoochee Valley is the same lovely place as of old. There can be seen at mid-day bright Stars that hover around the Valley in defiance of the brilliancy of the noon-day sun.

The Nacoochee Valley High School is in a flourishing condition; and the examination which took place a few days ago, was quite a success. Henry Starr wore off the laurels in declamation. The school is under the management of J. J. Methbin.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Whereas Divine Wisdom has seen fit to afflict this community and envelop the various schools and societies of Dahlonega in sadness and gloom, by removing from our midst, by the chilly hand of death, our beloved sister Miss Julia Wills, whose lovely character, modest and graceful deportment, untiring zeal and christian benevolence have ever stood as a model for emulation during her sojourn among us. Be it therefore

Resolved, That we recognize the power of God in this his dispensation of Providence, and bow with humble submission to his decree, knowing that he doeth all things well.

Resolved, That the Baptist Sabbath School, the N. G. A. College, the Corona Lodge, the Society and the U. F. T., have lost a faithful and devoted member and humble, devoted christian, and heaven has gained another saint.

Resolved, That we tenderly condole with the heart stricken family, thus bereft of their darling daughter and tender loving sister, and devoutly commend them for consolation to their hour of trial and affliction, to Him who orders all things, and the best and whose chastisements are meant in mercy.

Resolved, That while we mourn the loss of our departed sister, and deeply sympathize with those who were bound to her by the nearest and dearest ties, we share with them the hope of a reunion in that better land where there are no more parting, and bliss ineffable forbids all tears.

Resolved, That, the preamble and resolutions now adopted, be transmitted to the family of the deceased, spread upon the record of the Baptist S. S., preserved in the archives of the College, recorded in the minutes of the N. G. A. College, and in the minutes of the Corona Lodge, and presented to the Mountain Signal, The Advertiser, the Student's Herald and Forest News for publication.

Dr. R. F. Chapman, Mrs. E. A. Bivens, Miss Carrie Price, Miss Aurora Strong and W. A. Erwin, Com. Sabbath School. W. D. Harris, Miss Willie Lewis, Miss Lizzie Chapman, Miss Carrie Price, R. N. Coffee and R. H. Baker, Com. College. Miss Emma Boyd, Miss Carrie Price, Miss Sallie Williams, B. W. Lockhart, Trammell Starr and J. M. Williams, Com. Temperance Council.

The judgments obtained by the government against distillers in St. Louis amount to nearly a million of dollars.

SUNDAY READING.

The struggle to explain every thing has produced unbounded mischiefs in theology. The infinite is too large for our mastery; a humble and adoring reverence is the simplest of human duties in religion. And yet, the men who teach it are sometimes the first to break the law. An itching to explain, make comprehensible, breaks out in "deep sermons" and "profound treatises." At last the depth is only an illusion. The deepest well is only a scratch on the surface to the diameter of the earth; so stands the profoundest thought to the being and ways to God. What we can understand is our duty, and His revealed will concerning us. Even this is a large theme, and may puzzle a careless man giving most of his life to other questions. We can, if we try, comprehend what God asks of us; we shall muddle all if we insist upon knowing the remotest why of His Command. He has promised us light through obedience, and the obedient see more clearly than the wayward and stubborn.

One of the main reasons why there is such a failure of well grounded convictions with reference to religious truth, is found in the decadence of earnest study of the Bible. The admonition to search the scriptures is not obeyed. Unlike the Bereans of old, who, though they had Paul and Silas as teachers, did not fail so search the Scriptures to see whether these things were true, the latter day hearers argue, "this man has studied the subject through and through, and why should I make the effort either to corroborate or disprove his utterances?" We need independence of thought, and the disposition to study the teaching and not only standard the word of God.—Index.

Scientific men find that some theologians are uncandid and dogmatic, and they determine to have nothing to do with the world of theology, and quietly despise it. Theologians, on the other hand, sometimes see that scientific men refuse—contrary to all the principles of science—to take account of phenomena which imperatively call for explanation, or at least attention; and thus the whole world of science becomes to them an object of suspicion and dislike. On both sides of the controversy it is forgotten that different pursuits superinduce different habits of mind; and the great cause of Divine Truth suffers because it is sectionally treated.

Christian parents: If you would wish your sons to become christians, to fill honorable positions, to build up for themselves a character which shall be a solace to you in your declining years, come forward, join our ranks and help us drive, from our midst the progenitor of all crime, Rum, and well it be for them, and for you, if you succeed in doing this ere the poisoned chalice has been passed to their lips, or the gauzy web of its enchantment has been thrown around them. Remember in morals there can be no neutral grounds.—Etc.

A childhood passed with a due mixture of rational indulgence, under fond and wise parents, diffuses over the whole of life a feeling of calm pleasure; and, in extreme of old age, is the very last remembrance which time can erase from the mind of man.

Virtue carries with it its own reward.

THE HUSBANDMAN.

By means of an improved construction of loom furnished with a revolving shuttle-box containing six shuttles, the machine is made to weave any number of even picks of colors from two upward, without stopping the loom to change the colors, the box remaining stationary or revolving, as may be desired, while the loom is weaving, and is regulated by a peculiar lock catch so that the box cannot overrun itself. The aim of the improved arrangement is to accelerate the speed of the loom when weaving checks; for, although the speed of this loom reaches 300 picks per minute, the speed of similar looms with the circular box has been limited to less than one-half that extent per minute. Besides this, owing to the former unsteadiness of the box at the instant of picking, the shuttles were frequently thrown out, the operatives in this way incurring danger, a liability entirely obviated by this improved arrangement. The loom is also fitted with a device for stopping the cards and box motion alone, if the web falls or is broken.

What is claimed to be an improved compound for preventing incrustation in boilers consists in mixing with the water in a steam-boiler a compound composed of the following ingredients which, by evaporation, are combined according to the order here named: Three-fourths of a pound each of French ochre, Oxford ochre, brown ochre, yellow ochre; one-half pound each of Vandyke brown, Spanish brown, and purple brown; and three-fourths of a pound each of ground amber and ground ochre. The proportion here specified, mixed in a gallon of water, and put into a boiler seventeen by five feet, will, it is claimed, prove effective. Another plan, recently proposed, is to introduce a small quantity of chloride of ammonium, when the lime which forms the incrustation will be held in solution and the boiler cannot foul.

Artificial clouds of smoke are often used in France and Germany as a protection against frost. One plan, which has been very successful, consists in carefully mixing gas tar with saw dust and old straw and piling the mixture in large heaps in the vineyards. When required for use, smaller heaps are distributed about the vineyard, and these will burn freely in a few hours, and produce a dense smoke, which decreases the radiation and prevent frost.

There is but one cure for corns, and that is: Take a lemon and roll it under until it is soft; cut a thick slice and bind it on the corn on resting at night. In the morning, if the corn is white disintegrated, pull it out with your finger nails—never cut a corn. Sometimes several applications of the lemon slices will be necessary, but the corns are bound to succumb, and you can dance the next night if you desire.

A writer of the Rural New Yorker says: Set a tomato plant into each hill of cucumbers, melons and squashes and you will have no trouble from the striped bugs that are so destructive to these plants. The plants can be tied to stakes, and if well pruned when large, both subjects can proceed with their fruiting without detriment to one another.

A raw egg, mixed with little sugar taken every morning before breakfast, is declared to be an infallible cure for dyspepsia.

A YOUTHFUL MARTYR.

In the first ages of the Church of Christ, in the city of Antioch, a believer was carried forth to die as a martyr. "Ask any little child," said he, "whether it were better to worship one God, the Maker of heaven and earth, and one Saviour who is able to save us, or worship the many false gods whom the heathen serve?"

Now it was so that a Christian mother had come to the spot, holding in her hand a little son, of about nine or ten years old, named Cyril. The heathen judge no sooner heard the martyr's words than his eyes rested on the child, and he desired the question to be put to him.

The question was asked, and to the surprise of those who heard it, the boy replied, "God is one, and Jesus Christ is one with the Father."

The judge was filled with rage. "O base Christian!" he cried, "thou hast taught that child to answer thus." Then turning to the boy, he said more mildly, "Tell me, child, how did you learn this faith?"

The boy looked lovingly in his mother's face, and replied, "It was God's grace that taught it to my dear mother, and she taught it to me."

"Let us now see what the love of Christ can do for you," cried the cruel judge; and, at a sign from him the officers, who stood ready with their wooden rods of the fashion of the Romans, instantly seized the boy. Gladly would the mother save her timid dove, even at the cost of her own life, but she could not do so; yet she did whisper to him to trust in the love of Christ, and to speak the truth.

"What can the love of Christ do for him now?" asked the judge. "It enables him to endure what his Master endured for him and for us all," was the reply. And again they smote the child.

"What can the love of Christ do for him?" And tears fell even from the eyes of the heathen, as that mother, as much tortured as her son, answered, "It teaches him to forgive his persecutors."

The boy watched his mother's eyes as they rose up to heaven for him; and when his tormentors asked whether he would not now acknowledge the gods they served, and deny Christ, he still said, "No; there is no other God but One; and Jesus Christ is the Redeemer of the world. He loved me, and I love Him for His love."

The poor boy now fainted beneath the repeated strokes, and they cast the bruised body into the mother's arms, crying, "See what the love of your Christ can do for him now!"

As the mother pressed her arms gently to her own crushed heart, she answered, "That love will take him from the wrath of man to the seat of heaven."

"Mother," cried the dying boy, "give me a drop of water from our cool well upon my tongue."

The mother said, "Already, dearest, hast thou tasted of the well that springs out to everlasting life—the grace which Christ gives to His little ones. Thou hast spoken the truth in love. Arise now, for thou Saviour calleth for thee. May He grant thy poor mother grace to follow in the bright path!"

The little martyr faintly raised his eyes, and said again, "There is but one God, and Jesus Christ whom He has sent; and so saying he gave by his life.—Golden Sayings for the Young.

The Augusta Constitutionalist brings us a compilation of the figures of mortality in Charleston epidemics of 1854, 1856 and 1858. All three of these epidemics began in August and ended about the middle of November. 914 lives were destroyed in the first; 206 in the second, and 680 in the third of the series. In the epidemic of 1858 frost came on the ninth of November.

BRUNSWICK'S CONDITION.

The following letter from a lady in Brunswick to Mr. D. J. Dillon gives a succinct statement of affairs in Brunswick. It is dated October third:

"I am happy to inform you that my patient, G. L. C. Schlatter's daughter is out of danger—her's was the most critical case to recover I ever saw. Mr. Jones is regaining his strength slowly. Dr. Blain and family are reported improving. I was able to leave my patient three or four hours to day, and improved the time by visiting two families and looking through the commissary department gathering what information I could. Mr. J. M. Cooper informed me that Capt. G. A. Dare had just nine well men at his command. Two buildings near the mayor's office are devoted to the storage of goods—one called the lower and the other the upper commissary. They are packed with all kinds of provisions. Nothing is lacking excepting flints and liquors which have given out entirely."

The committee divided the city into eight districts and a wagon loaded with provisions runs from morning until night in each district. The plan is working admirably. The parties concerned deserve a great deal of credit for their untiring exertions. I have been a worker in all the Mississippi cities and towns, and I must acknowledge that I never saw men work with more zeal than the little band of braves in Brunswick."

Dr. Burns informed us that the fever would abate in two weeks for want of material. We had a very slight frost night before last. It was not sufficient, however, to produce any favorable results. I must not forget to state that Mayor Devonport is down with the fever. I'm told he is doing well. Mr. Born, the Episcopal clergyman, is doing nicely. The Methodist minister, Dr. J. W. Simmons, is the only one left to bury the dead. He held a union prayer meeting in his church last Sunday morning. There were present one Presbyterian, one Baptist, and five Methodists. I went with Mr. Crovatt this afternoon to see a poor family. Oh, such destitution. The father and mother were sick and occupied the only bed. Five children were strewn about the floor lying on folded bags. The room was dark and I was forced to step carefully to prevent stepping on them."

TOUCHY.

There are many people always looking out for ailments. They can not carry on the daily intercourse of the family without finding that some offense is designed. They are as touchy as hair triggers. If they meet an acquaintance who happens to be preoccupied with business, they attribute his abstraction in some matter personal to themselves, and take umbrage accordingly. They lay on others the fruit of their irritability. Indigestion makes them see impertinence in every one they come in contact with. Innocent persons who never dreamed of giving offense, are astonished to find some unfortunate word, or momentary tactlessness, mistaken for an insult. It is far wiser to take the more charitable view of our fellow-beings, and not suppose that a slight is intended unless the neglect is open and direct. After all, too, life takes its luss in a great degree from the color of our own minds. If we are frank and generous, the world we are suspicious, on the contrary, we are suspicious, men learn to be cold and cautious towards us. Let a person get the reputation of being "touchy," and in this way the imaginary offense is increased.

The Atlanta Constitution is dead down against independent candidates.

THE PUBLIC DEBT OF GEORGIA.

In his speech before the Young Men's Democratic Club of Atlanta, last Monday, Gov. SMITH presented a tabulated statement of the debt of this State, from the last of January, 1870, up to the beginning of the present year. We are indebted to the Constitution for the information:

STATEMENT CONCERNING STATE FINANCES.

Bond debt on Jan. 1, 76 $8,015,500
The Constitution adds: It will be seen that with all the additions made to the public debt by the Democrats, there has still been a reduction of the debt left Bullock of over $823,000.

SHORT SENTENCES.

Short phrases have ever been the most powerful and beautiful mediums of conveying thought. They are simplicity itself—and simplicity is beauty. Easily understood, no study is required to grasp their meaning. A prophetic politician makes a declaration respecting government, and the people soon catch the spirit and confirm the declaration. Results from such phrases may not be immediate; but the words go sounding on until their work is accomplished. Short phrases are comprehensive, and sometimes contain whole volumes. Caesar's "Veni, vidi, vici," gave the history of a whole campaign. And the last words of the dying Tom Paine—"I take a leap in the dark"—a confession of judgement at variance with the infidelity of a lifetime. When the remains of Napoleon Bonaparte were brought to Paris by the Prince de Joinville the entire speech making was this: "Sir! I present to you the ashes of Napoleon." And Louis Philippe answered, "I receive them in the name of France." Such was the brief response of a people to the presence of a dead Emperor. Sometimes in a single sentence, the life and character of some great man stands out strangely revealed and individualized. No biography could depict the character of Enoch more clearly than the simple words: "Enoch walked with God, and was not—for God took him."

The first chapter of Genesis is a symbol of the power which a few words can embody.

"How to get rid of a cold" is now being discussed by the country papers. Put a little nitro-glycerine in your nose, then hit it with a sled or hammer, and the cold will never trouble you again.

Not to Better up of Club.

Persons sending us a club of ten subscribers and $10.00, will receive an extra copy gratis for one year. For a club of ten for six months and $5.00, will also receive an extra copy free for six months. This is a rare opportunity, and every one wishing a cheap readable newspaper should subscribe at once.

Having purchased a good outfit, we are prepared to do all kinds of job work at reasonable figures, such as letter heads, envelopes, visiting cards, postals, all kinds of blanks and Baptist Ministers.

THE COUNTRY'S NEED.

The Savannah News says: "Apart entirely from the high political considerations with which the present campaign is freighted, there is no unmitigated fact which is every day made more apparent, and that is the absolute need of rest and quiet which the country demands. The prostration of trade, the disorganization of labor, the feverish and alarming pulsations of capital, the social disquiet prevalent throughout the entire land, admonishes the true statesmen—the Doctors of the Law—that the country needs rest and peace. Grant, like a political quack, has said: 'Let us have peace!' but his doses have only had the effect of starting every nerve in the body politic, and the nurses who, under his treatment have become disgusted, have gone abroad, leaving him with his pills—and parades, a broken down and ruined doctor. They have rushed for Hayes, but so controlling is the prejudice of Grantism, his election would totally fail of bringing this extremely rich patient to any favorable degree of convalescence."

The election of Tilden will bring rest and peace and harmony. It will revive confidence and trust. The people will trust one another, and they will all trust their government. A new era will come one that will promote personal as well as national dignity, and secure the national and State relations according to grants and limits of laws and constitutions. Above all, we shall hail that nobly just administration of public affairs that will at once retrieve the national fame and promote the national dignity and force.

PRaise YOUR WIFE.

Praise your wife man—for pity's sake, give her a little encouragement; it won't hurt her. She made your home comfortable, your heart bright and shining, and food agreeable; for pity's sake tell her you thank her, if no more. She does not expect it; it will make her eyes open wider than they have been ten years, but it will do her good, and you too.

There are many women to-day thirsting for words of praise, the language of encouragement. Through summer's heat, through winter's cold, they have dragged uncomplainingly and so accustomed have their fathers, brothers and husbands become their monotonous labors, that they look for and upon them as they do the daily rising sun, and its daily going down. Home every day may be made beautiful by an appreciation of its loveliness.

Everything that pleases the eye and the scene has been produced by constant work, much thought, great care, and untiring efforts; be holy.

It is not that many men do not appreciate these things and feel a glow of gratitude for numberless attentions bestowed upon them in sickness and health, but they don't come with a hearty, "Why, how pleasant you make things look, wife!" or, "I am obliged to you for talking so much praise!"

They thank the tailor for their "fits," they thank a man in a full uniform who gives them a seat they thank a young lady who moves along in a concert room—in short, they thank everybody out of doors, because it is the custom; and come home, tip their chair back, their heads up, and pull out the newspaper, grumble if their wives ask them to take the baby; scold if the fire has gone down, and if everything is just right, shut their mouths with a snip of satisfaction, but never say "I thank you!"

I tell you what, men, young and old, if you did but show ordinary civility toward those common articles of home-keeping your wives, if you would give them the hundredth and twentieth part of the compliment you almost choked them with before you were married, fewer women would seek for other sources of affection.

OUR STATE ELECTIONS.

Our great and glorious old Commonwealth has nobly acquitted herself in the contest just ended for Governor and members of the General Assembly. It was well known beforehand what the voice of a large majority of the people would be, but that majority was much greater than the warmest enthusiast anticipated, for the reason, that Radical lies and subterfuges are losing much of their former force. Even the poor ignorant darkey is fast becoming convinced that their fair promises are but a repetition of that "forty acre and mule" swindle, and their protestations of brotherly love, fraternal solicitude for their well-being, (some of them have gone so far in their abominable zeal, as to take stock in their souls' salvation), are just about "played out" with Sambo, and his eyes are slowly, but with the more sure, seeing into his "dead leaf" brother Rad's little game, and he is bringing back his much abused confidence to his old tried friends.

We see they are (the colored people,) forming Democratic clubs amongst themselves, throughout our entire State, and perhaps the other Southern States too. In Virginia the most prominent and influential colored men of the State are the prime movers in freeing their race from their former Radical task-masters. So it is in South Carolina and Florida. The thing is commencing as it should; through the medium of the righteous indignation of their best men, not the worthless five-cent-whiskey class, that cares for nothing so long as they can enjoy freedom in mean liquor, but the ministers of the gospel, their elders, and those, who feel the responsibility that is upon them to free their people from their political thralldom, and from the knaves who go about amongst them, inciting them to deeds of violence, not caring how much blood is spilt, how many lives it costs, so, by their martyrdom, the interests of the Radical party are advanced.

We hope they will be encouraged and assisted by the white people in their laudable efforts in every instance. Our staunch Democratic Constitution, 10th inst., always in the front rank in suggesting and doing good for our whole people, black as well as white, has this to say in an editorial, on the subject: "Our belief is that the white Democrats of Georgia should encourage and stand by the colored men professing the same political faith. We are in a position which makes it a labor of humanity as well as patriotism to assist the colored people to a true understanding of their position and rights as freemen." And again: "Let us at once go about the labor of teaching him that he has nothing to fear from us. When we have purged his mind of the false belief that the Southern whites are his enemies, and when we shall have learned him that prosperity is the result of peace and good government and that these are not things which depend for existence upon bayonets and force bills, he will become a better citizen, a producer and the ally of the true interests of all the people."

Right here, while on this subject, we want to say a word to our friends in the mountains, some of whom have been voting with the Republican party. While they have done so in the pursuit of motives no doubt, certainly with no expectation of reward in the way of office, they have been led to believe some very preposterous things if we have been informed correctly. It is not to be presumed, that with very indifferent mail facilities they should be posted on every new issue that comes up in a campaign, and as nothing has proven itself too absurd for the Radical party to latch to, they are prepared to listen to any slang-whanger that comes along and no matter how extreme, how ridiculously absurd his tale, if our friend, reason by analogy and the fellow has an oily tongue, most of them have, enough has been attempted before so that his belief or doubt would be strengthened or weakened as the case might be by the comparison.

The last "whopper" that is foisted upon our "independent friends of the mountains" is the "most unkindest cut of all." Right in the face of the fact that we, the Democratic party, are giving the negro all the encouragement possible to become an intelligent voter, helping them to organize Democratic clubs, &c., the Radical news carrier has hatched out a new egg to the effect that Mr. Tilden among other fearful things if he was elected, was going to re-enslave all the negroes. Now, any one blessed with mail facilities and a good education so that he could keep informed by reading his newspaper himself would have to be very silly to drink down any such a cock and bull story, but as we say, the Rad's have resorted to so many things beyond all reason to carry their point, that the man, with the limited means of getting at the truthfulness of them, as are some of the people in the mountain fastnesses, is liable to have an even worse fraud than this practiced upon him, and not be a fool either.

To all such, we say, read the two paragraphs we have extracted from the Atlanta Constitution, and we think you could not reasonably suppose such care, to make them "understand their rights as freemen," would be taken with them to force them into slavery.

The paramount question to every man, in this Presidential election, living in this section is: how can this indiscriminate manner of arresting and putting in prison, under the revenue laws as they now exist, our fathers, brothers and sons be stopped? You will never again be a free man until it is stopped, and there is only one way under the sun, that is, to vote against the Radicals and stop the stealing Vote for Tilden and be free! Vote for Hayes and you may be even worse off than you now are.

A special from Washington says, Southern Republicans are endeavoring to arrange some unity of action whereby they shall abstain from voting and allow the Southern States to be carried for democracy by default. The object of such a course is, that in the event of the election being close and against their party to make a point when the electoral vote is being counted that the election was not legal because the Republicans abstained from voting through fear of their lives or bodily harm. The suggestion comes from O. P. Morton and is considered a good one by the national committee.

The proprietors of the two Augustan dailies, respectively the Constitutionalist and Chronicle & Sentinel, seem to be at daggers' point. Walsh and Wright, of the Chronicle, made what they, the Constitutionalist proprietors, considered unjust and slanderous charges against them. Whereupon, quite a lengthy correspondence took place, and resulted in the withdrawal of the charges.

A dispatch from Washington says the debt statement issued shows a reduction during the last month of $2,915,365; currency in the treasury, $12,524,945; special deposit by legal tenders for redemption of certificates of deposit, $34,520,000; coin in the treasury, $64,591,124, including coin certificates, $29,777,600; outstanding legal tenders, $868,494,740.

The following is the number of deaths in Savannah from October 5th up to going to press:
Oct. 5, total 27 yellow fever 18

The "big wedding," judging from the long list of presents published in the Atlanta dailies, came off in that city some days ago.

It is a fact that Norcross obtained majorities in only six counties, and they are Lee, Dougherty, Baker, Decatur, McIntosh and Burke.

NORCROSS AND HIS DEFEAT.

Jonathan Norcross and his son, Rev. V. E. Norcross, took their departure for the Centennial a few days ago. We suppose the old man has gone there to reflect. He does not seem to comprehend the joke perpetrated upon him by the gubernatorial Nominating Convention which assembled at Macon.

GEORGIA AND HER NOBLE DEMOCRACY.

From all parts of the State comes the joyful tidings of the overwhelming majorities gained by the Democratic party in the late elections. It is a hopeful outlook for the future. Business now, no doubt, will flourish up and revive itself to a brisk rate under the new administration.

With Gen. A. H. Colquitt at the helm of State we can reasonably expect a safe and speedy voyage through any financial crisis that may threaten or assail our beloved State. He is pre-eminently a working man, and a prudent, safe man in all matters of money and business. And now we bid defiance to Grant and his legion of hell-hounds.

AN INFAMOUS LIE.

From a special dispatch to the Chicago Inter-Ocean, dated at Augusta, Ga., and reprinted in the editorial columns of the Atlanta Constitution, we see it stated that the negroes of this State were made to stay away from the ballot-box through fear of the whites—consequently the State went overwhelmingly Democratic. This, every true Southern man will deny, and brand it as an infernal lie, concocted by some of those defeat-d Radical aspirants for office. And even if left to the intelligent and unprejudiced negro himself he would pronounce the statement untrue.

The Constitution names several parties living in Augusta, as being the father of the published lie; namely, J. E. Bryant, Prince, Pannin, and others. This is very probable, as J. E. Bryant is a noted Radical leader and scawag, and capable of doing anything that is mean and libelous.

However, the statement is harmless, as it bears the mark of Radicalism upon its face.

DOUBLE HORROR.

The New York Sun publishes the following extract from a letter written by a Charleston lady to her brother in New York. Read it, as it tells a sad tale of the fearful state of affairs in South Carolina, and shows in part, to what extent the State have been and are now being misgoverned. And still that arch-fiend Chamberlain, is not yet satisfied with his work, and has went so far as to threaten to declare the State under martial law.

"Our young men have to be out all night, and every night guard the city. Last Monday evening the Radicals intended to have a torch-light procession. Among the transgressors of which the negroes boasted in advance, were two, one representing a white woman at the feet of a negro, suppliant and dejected; the other a white woman nursing a negro baby.

Think of this! Would such a sight be endured in New York, or even Boston? When I came from the island to have some wreaths made for poor Bob, I never saw such excitement. Gray-haired men turned out resolved to shoot on sight any negro who dared to display this horrible insignia. Troops are stationed all over the State. Gen. Hampton, with tears streaming down his face, exclaimed: "My God, we are in the death throes, and fighting for our very existence." Mrs. G— has organized the ladies, and we are sending refreshments to the young men who are guarding our lives every night. God bless them, for our only hope is in their strong, brave, patient arms. Our city is a camp, and it is the knowledge that it is so which keeps the negroes in check. Just think of being shut up with yellow fever and insurrectionary negroes. If death came to us in less objectionable form than through such agencies, how gladly we would covet it."

Small pox has made its appearance in Savannah.

CHAMBERLAIN'S REVOLUTION.

The following dispatch in the Constitution of the 8th inst., says: "The News & Courier's correspondent telegraphs from Columbia, October 6th: Gov. Chamberlain has determined to issue a proclamation to-morrow or the next day, ordering all white military clubs or organizations to surrender their arms and disband at once. In case of refusal, he will next proclaim the State in a condition of domestic violence and inform President Grant to that effect, and call upon him to suppress it."

The subjoined dispatch we clip from the daily Commonwealth of a later date:

"The State Democratic executive committee issued an address denouncing Gov. Chamberlain's proclamation as unwarranted by law and facts, and that it was issued to furnish a pretext for asking for troops. In response to a letter from General Hampton, Chief-Justice Moses says he knows nothing to lead him to suppose that South Carolina is an armed camp, or that any army is needed more potent than the two associate justices. Willard and Judges Mackey and Cook, Republicans, have written letters denying any knowledge of the facts stated in the proclamation. Mackey charges Chamberlain with conspiracy against free ballot."

The Savannah News, referring to Chamberlain's movement, says: "The last resort of secondarism has been finally reached by Gov. Chamberlain in issuing a proclamation calling upon the rifle clubs to surrender their arms and disband. In the event of their refusal to do so, he proposes to notify Grant that such is the case, and demand of him the use of the General Government to suppress it."

It is understood that Grant will send additional troops into the State, to be stationed at such points as Chamberlain may designate, and the disaffected counties, if any exist, be placed under martial law. This information has not reached the public ear even in Columbia, but the information was received from undoubted authority.

It is claimed that Chamberlain has been wrought up to this pitch by exaggerated reports recently made to him by special detectives sent to Ellenton to ferret out the originators of the riot there. It has undoubtedly been his plan for some time, and the plea that the detectives' information contradicted him in his determination is but another of his sham excuses for violating his oath of office, and carrying the election for himself and his party.

The duplicity and hypocrisy of this cowardly political swifling is brought out in all its deplorable and meanness as the masses of the honest Republicans forsake his falling fortunes. He would plunge the State in the horrors of civil war in order to bolster up his rotten dynasty.

We shall see what we shall see. It will be a delightful spectacle for Chamberlain, when he has turned loose the passion of men in a vast field for murder and bloodshed, and the picture will be complete, with Grant sitting upon a high seat in the amphitheatre, quietly smoking and evidently enjoying the gladiatorial contest.

We hardly think that anything we could say would add to the good sense and straightforward comments upon this subject by the above papers. Suffice it to say that we sincerely hope, as does every other Southern man, that this black hearted Radical official will ere long be hurled from his throne of power by a wronged and indignant people.

LATER.—We have, as we said to say that Chamberlain's own party has testified against him.

DOUBLE-HEADED TICKET.

There is, what many of our exchanges call a "double-headed ticket" in South Carolina which is getting very popular. It calls for "Hayes and Hampton." This is quite an improvement on the genuine Radical ticket, but would read a great deal better if the name of Tilden was substituted for that of Hayes. However, we can make out with this ticket as it stands, as some of the bitterest Republicans are going to vote this ticket.

Democracy Ahead!

Three Cheers for Indiana and West Virginia!

Last night's mail brings us the following election news:

A private dispatch from Louisville says Indiana has gone Democratic by 2,500 to 3,000 majority, and Ohio 5,000 to 10,000 Radical.

WHEELING, Oct. 11.—Returns are very meagre, but there seems no room to doubt that West Virginia has gone Democratic.

YELLOW FEVER.

We regret exceedingly that we are unable to chronicle any abatement in the ravages of this scourge either at Savannah or Brunswick. The wires still continue to bring alarming and distressing news from both of the afflicted cities, with but little hope of an early change for the better. New York has responded nobly to the appeals made in behalf of those who were so unfortunately as to fall victims to the fatal touch of the dread monster. Her total contributions amounts to near $60,000, which did untold good in the alleviation of the great sufferings of the people.

May God in his infinite mercy arrest the fatal touch of the dread monster.

Since writing the above we see a dispatch to the effect that yellow fever in B unswick is about at an end.

THE INDIANS.

We have nothing definite from the Indian country. Late reports seem to indicate now that the Indians have got under hold on "Uncle Sam" and that he is afraid to make too big a demonstration or they way for fear of being tripped. The Government tried to drive them off of their possessions by force of arms, but the Sioux were not so easily driven as the Government imagined, so now they are trying to take them off by means of treaties of peace. We hardly think the plan will work, as the United States have, on former occasions violated four or five treaties made between them. This, as a matter of course, has caused the red man to lose all confidence in the word of the great father. Spotted Tail and Sitting Bull, the two leading chiefs of that tribe of Indians are determined not to be entrapped any more by such hollow and faithless promises, and will no doubt before they submit to a removal of their people, create a big stir.

The yellow fever sufferers of Savannah have received up to date, $67,677.73.

Printers are in high demand in Savannah just now.

From last night's Constitution we see that the official returns for Governor, is as follows: Colquitt 102,497; Norcross 32,107; Colquitt's majority 60,390.

BOTTOM FALLING OUT OF THE HAYES BUCKET.

At a meeting of the German American Central Campaign Organization at 200 Court street, Brooklyn, some nights ago, Chas. S. Scher, read a communication dated in Dresden, L. I., signed by Chas. Hirsch, was read, reciting that a Hayes and Wheeler Club, composed of 196 members, on Monday night last had resolved to support Tilden and Hendricks, and asking admittance to the Central Organization of the Independent German-Americans, who are supporting the Reform ticket. Mr. John Schaner, of the Twelfth ward of Brooklyn, who represented a former Hayes and Wheeler club of the same ward, reported to the meeting that the club had turned over to Tilden and Hendricks' support. He, too, applied for admission. Ludwig Segart, President of a Reform Club in the Twenty-first ward, whose members are almost all Republicans, reported that this evening, 196 Thorenvane, they expected to declare for Tilden and Hendricks. Mr. Fred Rohrbach, from the Twenty-fifth ward, reported that the Turner Society of South Brooklyn, composed of Republicans, were about to organize a Tilden and Hendricks' Club.

A CURIOUS APPLE TREE.

There is growing in Pochuck, Vernon township, Sussex county, an apple tree which bears both sour and sweet apples. Not only this, but sour and sweet apples grow on the same limb, and some of the apples are both sour and sweet. One can pick an apple and find it intensely sour, then pick another from next to it, and find it extremely sweet. Still another can be picked from the same limb and be both sour and sweet.—One half sweet, the other sour. Over a quarter of a century ago, one William Babbs, now deceased, in experimenting, took a bud from an apple which bore greenings and another from a tree which bore sweet apples. Cutting them in half he placed the sour and sweet halves together, and budding them to the tree, the above has been the result. Some of the apples are entirely green in color, while others have a yellow cast.—New York Advertiser.

THE MARINER.

A minister in a Scotch seaport town was descending before a large audience upon the perils of unrepentant sinners as they drifted down the stream of time. He compared them to a tempest tossed bark, bowing under the hurricane, every bit of canvas torn from its spars, and driving furiously upon adjacent breakers. At the climax of his skillfully elaborated metaphor the minister shouted: "And how, old how, shall the poor mariner be saved?" An old salt in the gallery, with his soul absorbed in the scene, springing to his feet and screaming: "Let him put his helm hand down, and bear up against the wind."

FIVE BABIES IN ONE YEAR.

A correspondent writing from Checco, Illinois, says: "The wife of Christopher Zober, living in township, about six miles northwest of this city, has given birth to five children within a year. The first, triplets, all girls, were born on the evening of September 25, 1875, and on the morning of September 25, 1876, she had a pair of twins, a boy and a girl, which are living. The triplets died."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A HUMAN DEVEL.

A Washington dispatch says: Pat Maguire, a saloon keeper at Mount Vernon, quarreled with his wife Sunday, evening her of infidelity, and finally grasping each of his children lifted them as high as his head and dashed them to the floor, exclaiming: "These are not my children, 'one'! One of the children is dead, and the others are in a precarious condition. Maguire was arrested.

Summer has faded into the irrevocable past, do not open out the gates that never will lead us to its return, going with its memories of blossom and bird, and fragrant head, and swaying vines, the clink of the scythe down in the meadow, and the whirr of the reaping machine eating up a farm hand, but the point of memory and the real things that mark where the last moments of the year are still lingering round the scene.—Burlington Haw'ry.

The two giants, whose wedding attracted attention in London several years ago, Captain Bites and Anna Swan, are now living quietly near Rochester, N. Y. He is seven and a half feet high and she is an inch taller, and each weighs more than four hundred pounds. The rooms of their house are eighteen feet high and the doors twelve feet high. Their bed-late is ten feet long, and the furniture is proportionately large.

A person who was sent to prison for marrying two wives, excused himself by saying that when he had one she fought him, but when he got two they fought themselves.

A DERANGED WOMAN CHOPS OFF HER HAND.

The Ogden Junction of Thursday says:

Yesterday Dr. P. L. Anderson was summoned in haste to Morgan city. On his arrival by train, accompanied by Dr. E. G. Williams, he found a singular and terrible case. An old lady 76 years of age, wife of Mr. Alexander Robinson of North Morgan, had been for some time in a deranged state of mind, and that morning had frightfully mutilated her left arm.

In conversing with Dr. Anderson she said she got out of bed at four o'clock that morning, being impressed to go to one of her nieces and tear her eyes out. On the way something told her she had better injure herself than another person, so she returned, and, finding an old axe near the house, she put her arm on a block of wood, giving herself six licks and chopping off her wrist! She picked up her hand and carried it to the house, laying it on the door step. She then went into the house and woke her husband telling him what she had done, and that he had better get up and put her to bed.

Blood was scattered all about the premises, presenting a fearful and sickening sight. Dr. Anderson had great difficulty in getting Mrs. Robinson under the influence of chloroform, as she understood what was intended and fought against it desperately. The Doctor, however, succeeded in administering the chloroform, and amputated the wounded limb about four inches below the elbow.

HUMAN DESTINY.

Unremitting labor and unceasing vigilance are the lowest price at which man can obtain happiness and safety.

The primeval curse, "In the sweat of thy brow shalt thou eat bread," include within its scope not only the bodily, but the mental and moral powers of man. And reason and philosophy, not less than revelation, clearly demonstrates that all nature, both within us and without, is so formed and constituted as to enforce this destiny.&lt;/

DARLINGTON, GA.,
SATURDAY, OCT. 21, 1876.

Our Atlanta exchanges report a tremendous amount of cotton as being received in that market.

We see from a telegraphic dispatch that only sixty deaths have occurred from yellow fever in Charleston, up to the present time.

According to the Georgia Orange gin houses were burned in Georgia in the year 1874, and in 1875 the burning of 46 was chronicled—thus making the item of loss in this respect quite a serious one.

Carey W. Styles, of the Atlanta Commonwealth, and P. F. Lawless, of the Gainesville Southern, collided under the Union Passenger Depot, in Atlanta, some days ago. A few bruises which subsequently proved to be only skin deep, was the result.

Among the many arrests in South Carolina, a few days ago, were several farmers between eighty and ninety years old. They were brought through a pouring rain, and were not allowed either fire or food, but immediately committed to jail, many being without food twenty-four hours.

Rev. J. W. Simmons, sends a letter from Brunswick to the Telegraph & Messenger, bearing date of October 9th, says: The fever has nearly run through the entire white population. There is not more than fifty (if so many) in the city who have not had the yellow fever or are not now down with it.

The Sunny South of October 7th, amongst many other pretty and true "thoughts," gets off the following: "Jealousy is born of love, for there can be no deep and devoted love without jealousy. The lover who is incapable of strong and deep feelings." (Evidently a typographical error, but none the less just so.)

A dispatch from Columbia, S. C., says that the jail at Edgelyfield was broken open some nights ago by a party of three hundred men, and over three hundred and seventy State arms, most of them breech-loaders, were taken out and carried away. These arms were called in by the Governor at the time the militia were dismissed last year.

We find the following in the Atlanta Commonwealth: We are informed that not a white citizen attended the polls in Brunswick. The election at that precinct was held by three negroes, and the irregularities were so flagrant and ridiculous that the precinct was thrown out by the consolidating managers. The rejection of this poll elected Mr. Tison, an intelligent and worthy gentleman, and defeated Jim Blue, the colored rad.

Atlanta Commonwealth: A gentleman who remained in Brunswick through the epidemic had the fever himself, and who left there on Saturday last, informs us that the scourge had gone through the material and was at an end. Nearly every person who remained there had the fever, and many are still down with it. The doctors and nurses who were sent from other cities had gone home, there being nothing for them to do. They, however, advise refugees and strangers to stay away till after heavy frost.

Styles, of the Commonwealth, seems to be of the opinion that, on notice that the negroes were "baying up all the available firearms" in this section, "should certainly call for more troops." Well, this might be the case in some States we know of, but it is not so, with us, and we would just say here for the information of those who are not so well acquainted in the mountains, that we sent off the "Noricross Express," on the 7th inst., done up neatly in a carpet-bag, everything that resembled Chamberlainism in this portion of the State.

ANN ELIZA.

A late dispatch from Salt Lake City says that the Ann Eliza Young vs. Brigham Young case came up before Judge Schaefer to-day, who decided that unless the money previously adjudged the plaintiff be paid in ten days an attachment would issue to bring the defendant into Court for contempt.

This captivating rule creature seems to be worrying old Brigham considerably. We hardly think it will be a great while before the old con denomness Mormonism altogether. Perhaps he regrets already, that Ann Eliza was pleased to smile so sweetly upon him in his seventeenth state of wooing.

RUSSIA AND THE ARMISTICE.

Russia will not agree to an eternal armistice. The Montenegro official journal declares Montenegro will not accept either armistice or peace except in concert with Serbia. Is bound to continue war until the liberation of the Christians is accomplished. All the powers except Russia have received the Turkish armistice favorably.

We are not inclined to the belief, however, that Russia's refusal to accept the armistice will be permanent or lasting.

A dispatch from London says: The Montenegro commander reports that in the recent raid which resulted in the burning of Ljapizze and all the surrounding villages, 1,500 Turks were killed, inclusive of those who were burned in the houses. The Montenegrins lost 130 men.

N. L. ANGIER.

From the Constitution of the 15th inst., we are pleased to see that the voters of Fulton county have "rendered unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's" by gallantly bestowing upon our ex-State Treasurer, the distinguished honor of the Majority of that city. We know this gentleman only by reputation, but that reputation is brilliant and patriotic. He filled the office of State Treasurer under the Bullock regime, and did the people of Georgia noble service in his efforts to frustrate the fraudulent designs of the party who placed him in power.

In speaking of the invaluable aid rendered the State by this gentleman, the Atlanta Herald of September 17th, says "that he almost lived on the road from Atlanta to Washington, and as sure as we are in existence, we owe to his noble efforts in our behalf the recovering and saving impulse which came to the rescue."

THE CROWNING OUTRAGE.

Since our last mention of Chamberlain's revolution, in THE ADVERTISER, our daily exchanges come brimful of telegraphic dispatches from the seat of war, to the effect that Federal troops are out all over the State under order of this reigning tyrant, making the arrests of peaceable and law-abiding citizens unconscious that they had ever violated the laws of the State, and wholly ignorant as to the cause of their arrest.

The Chronicle & Sentinel of a recent date says: "Yesterday the city was filled with citizens of Aiken and Edgefield counties who had fled from the grasp of tyranny in their own state. They were not conscious of having violated the laws; they knew of nothing which should subject them to prosecution, yet they had received undoubted information that warrants for their arrest had been issued by a United States Commissioner and placed in the hands of a United States Marshal for South Carolina, backed by Federal soldiers, to be executed without delay. Uncertain what course to pursue, they came to Augusta until something definite could be ascertained. Forty-five or fifty were thus held in suspension during the day. Several of them stated that they had no objection to being arrested provided the arrests were made during the day, but they did not care to be dragged from their beds at midnight with no assurance that their lives would be safe. It is probable, however, that all will return to their homes this morning and quietly await the result."

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

We see from the Atlanta Constitution of the 14th inst, that a fatal accident occurred on the Western and Atlantic Railroad a few days ago, by two trains running together at a station called Ieville, about five miles from Atlanta, which resulted in the killing of two prominent gentlemen, the Hon. E. H. Lindley, of Powder Spring, Ga., and Mr. E. Sawtell, of Sweetwater, Tenn.

A SHOT IN THE EAR.

The Abbeville, S. C., Medium says "the click of the pistols" Chamberlain claims to have heard on "big Tuesday" was only the springing of the valves on the brass band. This can be established upon undeniable testimony. The trouble with Chamberlain was that every bugle-blast for Hampton was "a shot in the ear." He does not like Democracy even in a horn!

COLQUITT'S MAJORITY.

Gen. Colquitt's majority appears in the Atlanta Commonwealth of the 17th inst., taken from the Office of the Secretary of State, up to date: Gen. A. H. Colquitt ..... 105,533 Jonathan Norcross ..... 32,870

Colquitt's majority ..... 72,663 Eleven counties are to be heard from. These will make Colquitt's majority about seventy-six thousand. It will not reach eighty thousand, as was thought.

FACE TO FACE.

The Philadelphia Times says that "Ohio and Indiana stand even in the contest. The strong Republican State and the doubtful Democratic State each presents its average five thousand majority, and Hayes has certified to the country for November enfranchised by his flattering Republican lines, while Hendricks is presented to the nation green with the laurels of a substantial victory wrested from the very desperation of power."

THE HERALD ON CHAMBERLAIN.

The New York Herald pours a broadside into Gov. Chamberlain, and condemns in the most emphatic manner his late proclamation, ordering armed bands (rice clubs) to disperse, under penalty of being arrested by a squad of United States troops headed by a U. S. Deputy Marshal. And that visit is equal to death itself. It concludes a column and a half editorial with the warning to the Republican leaders that they had better quickly set such men as Chamberlain and Packard adrift. They cannot afford to support them.

POSTAL BUSINESS AND THE EPIDEMIC.

A telegraphic dispatch of the 9th inst., says the Superintendent of Railway Mail Service is in receipt of information to-day that two more route agents on the Savannah and Live Oak Line are down with the yellow fever, leaving only two agents to keep up the postal business on the southerly and northwestern approaches of Savannah. The local Superintendent reports having ordered two agents from other Georgia routes to take these places, and adds: "The force in the Savannah office is so reduced by sickness that it can furnish no assistance; it is impossible to get substitutes at Savannah, or to get them elsewhere to run on lines centering at Savannah."

"HON. W. P. PRICE."

Under this caption we find the following meritorious compliment paid this distinguished gentleman, and his constituents, the people of Lumpkin, by that sprightly agricultural journal, the Georgia Grange. It says: "The people of Lumpkin did a wise thing when they made this distinguished jurist, legislator and patriot their law maker in the Representative branch of the General Assembly of Georgia. He is prudent, safe, watchful, and will do nothing that will, be promotive of the best interests of his immediate constituents, and of the whole people. His course in the National Legislature was eminently proper, proving a rich blessing to our section, and will continue to be a blessing, for generations to come, to the Ninth District and the entire State. He is a Christian gentleman of great moral worth, and an experienced legislator, and will be at once recognized as a leader in our next Legislature."

REFORM!

The following extract we make from the Greenville News of the 12th inst: "Judge Cooke and General McGowan came up from Due West yesterday, where they held the most successful meeting of the campaign. It was a regular revival. When Gen. McGowan spoke the crowd became so much excited, and affected that tears streamed from the eyes of those men, and on the speaker's stand, there was not a dry eye—Judge Cooke even shed tears."

It is claimed by those present, that there never was such a meeting in Abbeville county—that the speeches of Judge Cooke and Gen. McGowan were the best campaign speeches ever made in South Carolina.

The enthusiasm of the negroes was unbounded; they came mounted and in uniform by companies, with Democratic banners waving. To use Gen. McGowan's language: "No power on earth can stop the wave that is rolling over the State for Reform!"

THE YELLOW FEVER.

The following extract we make from a lengthy editorial published in the Atlanta Constitution of the 17th inst., showing the number of deaths occurring from the prevailing epidemic at Savannah now; also, the number of deaths from other diseases:

"We have received a circular from Mr. John McLaughlin, showing the number of deaths from the day of its first appearance at Savannah, August 21st, up to the 15th inst. The total number of deaths in that time was 1,066, of which 760 were caused by the prevailing epidemic. The daily average since the first day of September has been 24; from yellow fever, 174; from other causes, 7. On three days only did the mortality exceed forty, the largest death rate, forty-four, occurring on the 29th of last month.

Mr. McLaughlin mentions the fact that 374—over one-third—of the entire number of deaths were children under twelve years of age. The mortality outside of the yellow fever cases has been unusually great. The average summer death rate in Savannah is 68 a month. This year 306 died from other causes in less than two months. Of the total number of deaths only 268 were from the colored population, although the latter probably outnumber the whites."

Telegraphic Notes.

Since 1868 the black militia of South Carolina have received from the Government $100,000 worth of arms and ammunition.

A girl at St. Peter, Minn., has, in male attire, been serving as brakeman on a railroad.

San Franciscans pay $10,000 a year for their intoxicating liquors the favorite being whiskey straight.

The steamboat express train, conductor Cushman, from Fall River for Boston, collided with the local freight train, a few days ago, killing one person and wounding several.

General Sherman is of the opinion that South Carolina will need no more troops, as she has already enough to insure peace in the State.

The employees of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad held a meeting recently, to discuss a protest against the reduction of salaries. A committee of three were appointed to wait on the Superintendent armed with a petition signed by 130 employees asking that their salaries be made as follows: Conductors, $85; brakemen $45 to $50 per month.

One of the largest droves of cattle ever seen in any place was driven from Texas some weeks ago, to Kansas. The herd numbered 30,000 horned cattle, and was attended by 700 drivers. The herd brought the neat little sum of $320,000.

The salmon product of the Columbia river, Oregon, will this year reach the enormous total of 40,000,000 pounds, and the amount canned for shipment will yield $3,000,000.

A New York dispatch says that Madame Adams who was shot by her husband, the bil. French musician, is dead.

A terrible explosion occurred at a nail mill in Pittsburg on the 12th, attended by a great loss of life. The boiler exploded, and the building was demolished. One hundred and fifty persons were employed in the building when it was literally torn to pieces. The roof fell back and rested on the rail machine, which enabled a great many to crawl out before the wreck was in flames.

Persons purporting to be from Mississippi called on the Secretary of War the other day, urging a like need of troops for that State. The Secretary's reply has not transpired.

Capt. John W. Smith, a reliable frontiersman, reports that many Cheyennes from Arkansas and the South have been joining Sitting Bull within the past year.

A Columbus dispatch says that Frank Desher teller of the national bank, committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart. Cause—domestic infelicity.

The official count of the State of Arkansas is completed. The total vote is 108,004. Miller, Democrat, received a majority of 33,992 over Bishop, Republican.

A Cleveland dispatch says that a Democratic hackman named Craig inflicted a few bruises on Senator Blaine.

Germany will order about 90,000 American revolvers for its cavalry and artillery.

Warrants for the arrest of E. A. Woodward on the civil suits with Tweed are all prepared, but cannot be served until Woodward finds bail or criminal charges are made. As the bail required is $3,000,000 it is generally thought he will not attempt to secure bail.

Charles Fletcher, of Delaware county, a fireman on board the Revence steamer Grant, lying at anchor off Tompkinsville, while signing the pay roll the other day, after receiving his monthly pay, fell dead.

THE VERY BEST? THE FILIJAY COURIER. (With a fine oil chromo premium) will be sent to any address one year for $2.00, and postage prepaid by the publisher. The COURIER is a large eight-page weekly, devoted to local, household and generally interesting reading. Its local column is rich, rare and replete with fancy, fun and frolic. A really fine oil chromo is given free to every subscriber. It gives more for the money than any paper published in the South. As an advertising medium, the Courier is second to none.

WANTED. I want an active, energetic agent in every locality, who can easily make from $25 cents per day. Write for prospectus and terms to agent. Address, SAMUEL R. FIDEMAN, Publisher Weekly Courier, Ellijay, Ga.

LOCAL NEWS.

Wheat sowing has commenced.

The cabbage crop is pretty good.

The melancholy days have come.

Another new candidate for Sheriff.

Fannin county court is now in session.

Rain is badly needed in this section now.

It's cool enough for a "fire company" ain't it?

Capt. John A. Parker raised fifty bushels of peas on his farm this year.

We have noticed quite a number of new students during the past few days.

Wagons loaded with country produce can be seen on our streets almost daily.

We return thanks to Mr. C. B. Bird, of Iowa Hill, California, for a batch of San Francisco papers.

We are pleased to note the general improvement that is being made in all parts of our quiet little town.

A full supply of warranty deeds, together with a complete assortment of various other blanks, for sale at this office.

The parsonage, occupied by the Presiding Elder of this district, we are pleased to see, is being repaired and thoroughly renovated.

The consumption of beef for the past two or three weeks has been very great in Dahlonega. We are informed also, that the supply was equal to the demand.

We add to our exchange list this week, that spicy little sheet, the Cumming Chronicle. It is printed neatly, and is brimful of local and miscellaneous news.

Monday and Tuesday nights proved to be the coldest nights we have had this season. Ice could be found in abundance in vessels where water had been left standing the preceding night.

The Rev. Mr. Pruitt and the Rev. Samuel Waters preached the funeral sermon of Mrs. C. W. Ash, deceased, at Yahoola Church on last Sabbath. The attendance was very large and many failed to get seats within doors.

Mr. J. M. Harris, the courteous proprietor of the Harris House, at Porter Spring, was in town on Tuesday last. Mineral water will soon swell him to the gigantic proportions of his namesake "Platty" Harris, of Atlanta.

We were shown some fine specimens taken from the Findley vein the latter part of last week. One rock, in particular, looked as if it was half gold, if not more. It was an eye-opener, sure. And what is still better, those working the vein say that they have plenty of just such, that are being unearthed daily.

Mr. T. J. Worley brought to our office on Tuesday last a specimen phial of the home-made syrup which he has just finished making up. It was worked up on common wooden rollers, without the aid of a patent evaporator, and is as fine a quality as any New Orleans syrup we ever saw. It presents an appearance similar to that of honey, and is equally as sweet.

We are informed that Mr. Floyd Anderson has lost in the past few days, twelve fattening hogs from the hog cholera. This is quite a heavy loss on the part of Mr. Anderson. Reports similar to this reach us almost daily from different parts of the county, and does not present a very flattering prospect for the supply of pork this year.

We were accosted by one of our country subscribers on the street the other day, who wished to know, if his time was up, and upon being answered in the affirmative he said: "Here's yer cash. Put my name on yer book with the margin note to be stopped when yer suspend publication." We are inclined to the belief that this honest backwoodsman will be a reader of The Advertiser for some time to come yet.

Mr. J. A. Reese has been appointed Mayor of Dahlonega, Rev. A. Martin, Esq., having resigned.

From the number of marriage notices which appear in this issue, one would infer that a different type of fever from that in Savannah, had broken out in this region—known as the matrimonial fever.

The following Notaries Public were commissioned by the Governor, in the city of Atlanta, for White county: A. Henderson, 721st district, White county, A. Blackwell, 862nd district, White county.

Several wagons left for Gainesville on yesterday morning loaded with persons visiting the above named place for the purpose of witnessing Old John Robinson's world renowned show. We wish them, one and all, a pleasant journey and a safe return.

A postal card was received here on last Wednesday evening, to the effect that Newton J. Walker, who was sentenced to the chain gang for the term of three years by Judge Knight, at the last April term of Lumpkin Superior Court, died on the 6th of June, of typhoid fever.

Mr. T. F. Lawson has fitted us up for winter with one of his "minute heating stoves." This ingenious invention of Mr. Lawson's is quite a success, and is becoming very popular. An ordinary office or store room can be made pleasant and warm in the short space of three minutes after everything is in readiness and the match applied.

We were presented with a number of the finest apples we ever saw on Saturday last. The largest measuring fourteen inches in circumference, and was growing in an orchard belonging to the Rev. C. W. Stargel. It was without exception, the largest apple we ever saw. Mr. F. V. Moore, also, exhibited to us a very fine one which measured twelve and a half inches in circumference. For which these clever gentlemen will please accept our thanks.

Dahlonega, we are both proud and pleased to learn, has not turned a deaf ear to the appeals sent out by the Savannah and Brunswick yellow fever sufferers. Some five or six weeks ago, quite a large amount of money was made up by contribution for the relief of these afflicted people, and now we read in a late number of the Savannah Morning News, a valuable receipt for the prevention and cure of the yellow fever, forwarded to the proprietor of that paper, by Mrs. J. W. Woodward of this place, which was copied extensively by the press in that portion of the State.

We have just been handed by Mr. T. F. Lawson, a pamphlet descriptive of H. W. Johns' Asbestos Roofing. The book is accompanied by numerous letters and testimonials, certifying that the wonderful Asbestos Roofing is not only indestructible by fire or acids, but differs from all other known mineral substances in possessing fibres resembling silk or flax, which renders it the most durable of any other roofing yet introduced. Mr. Lawson informs us that it is much cheaper than shingles. It is suitable for all temporary purposes where a cheap form of roofing is desired. For further information call on or address Mr. T. F. Lawson, Dahlonega, Ga.

We are pained to chronicle the sad death of an infant child of Mr. Dec. Passe, living near Thompson's Bridge, aged two years. We are not familiar with the facts attending the untimely death of the little innocent one, and were only able to learn that it, in playing near or with the fire, came in contact with the flames, which greedily consumed the garments of the child, causing its death almost instantly. The family, who were some distance from the house attending to out door work, found upon their return to the house that the spirit of their loved babe had wended its flight to that Saviour who says "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." The bereaved parents have our heartfelt sympathies in this their hour of affliction.

As we go to press it is thick cloudy, and looks very much like we will have rain.

We have seen it stated that the State Lunatic Asylum was filled to overflowing. Then, if this be the case, the matter should receive the serious consideration of our next Legislature, and steps should immediately be taken to remedy the matter. We have one in our town that is a fit subject for the asylum, but if this institution is filled to its utmost capacity, then the relatives and friends of the afflicted ones will have to take the responsibility of caring for and looking after a charge that may at any time do them a personal injury.

We regret to learn of the serious loss sustained by Mr. C. E. Head, on Friday night of last week, near Porter Spring, by fire. His dwelling house with its entire contents, was burned to the ground. This is a heavy blow to Mr. Head, as he is comparatively a poor man, and it should arouse the sympathy and charity of the whole community. A subscription list is now in the hands of his friends, being carried around soliciting contributions, in his hour of distress. We hope none will turn a deaf ear to the appeals made by the donor, remembering that "he that giveth to the poor, lendeth to the Lord."

MINING NEWS.

We are unable to chronicle the opening of any new mines, or relate to our readers the details of any wonderful discoveries being made, this week, but we are glad to say that the different stamp mills and mines are being run with the usual average yield—which is very good.

We have nothing direct from the superintendent, but we learn that LOTT'S BOAT is still in operation, and it is reasonable to suppose that they are making very favorable headway, with bright prospects of a handsome profit being realized by the owners in the not far distant future.

THE VESSEY MINE, which for some time has been falling off in its yield of rich ore, has, we are informed, begun to pay handsomely; they having struck the old vein squarely again. There is no visible decrease in the amount of rich ore, which it is now furnishing. Work is being pushed briskly forward at the

BOLEY FIELD VEIN, but we are not informed as to whether the vein has been struck yet.

At the JONES VEIN they are busily engaged blasting, preparatory to taking out ore. This mine is reported to be the richest yet discovered, with one or two exceptions. We hope to hear some thing more definite from this mine next week.

HEFF MINE. There has been no material change in the yield of this mine for some weeks.

FINDLEY VEIN. At this celebrated vein they are taking out ore which is so rich that they do not run it through the stamp mill, but pan it out.

They have just commenced a tunnel with a view to striking what is known as the sand vein.

Another week of such rapid and successful headway by our different companies, and old Lumpkin will take the "shine" off of California or any other gold bearing belt.

We are reliably informed that active preparations are being made to open out other new mines, as soon as water can be had.

CUT THIS OUT.

It May Save Your Life.

There is no person living but what enters more or less, with Lung Diseases, Coughs, Colds or Consumption, yet some would do rather pay 75 cents for a bottle of medicine than would cure them. Dr. A. Rose's Great Remedy has been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures astonish every one that tries it. If you don't what we say in print, cut this out and take it to your druggist, J. W. W. A. Burnside, and get a sample bottle for ten cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you. Regular size 75 cents. Oct. 14 ly

DO YOU WANT HEALTH?

Why Will You Die?—Death, or what is worse, is the inevitable result of continued suppression of the natural flow. It is a condition which should not be trifled with. Immediate relief is the only safeguard against constitutional ruin. In all cases of suppression, suspension or other irregularity of the "courses," Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator will cure promptly. It is a legitimate prescription, and the most infallible Doctors use it. Prepared by J. H. Bradfield, druggist, Atlanta, Ga. $1.00 per bottle, and sold by respectable druggists everywhere.

Don't Suffer From Female.

LAGRANGE, Ga., March 29, 1870. Bradfield & Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Dear Sirs—I take pleasure in stating that I have used for the last twenty years the medicine you are putting up, known as Dr. Bradfield's Female Regulator, and consider it the best combination ever gotten together for the diseases for which it is recommended. I have been familiar with the preparation both as a practitioner of medicine and in domestic practice, and can honestly say that I would not be able to do so for a man, and can but hope that every lady in our land, who may be suffering in any way with the various diseases of the female system, and who may be able to procure a bottle, and try the sufferings may not be relieved, but they may be restored to health and strength.

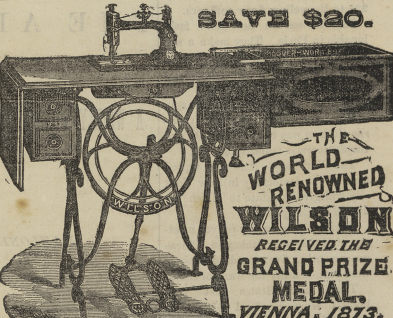

With my kindest regards,
I am respectfully,
W. B. FERRELL, M. D.

Portland, Me., contributed $23-25 to the yellow fever sufferers. Flat dresses are now most fashionable in Paris. They make a woman look like a barn board.

Two miles of Democrats, with torches, paraded through the streets of St. Louis some nights ago. The total vote of the late Arkansas election was nearly 100,000, and the democratic majority 34,000.

The World says that the united front of the democracy in New York city will give the state to Tilden by 50,000 majority.

During the noon day prayer meeting of Moody and Sankey in Chicago, recently, five hundred people were turned away for want of room.

The United States last year bought from England $1,249,535 worth of books, and sold that country $87,260 worth.

The total number of cash admissions to the Centennial exposition during the month of September was 2,130,991, cash receipts for the month $948,000.

The fishing season in Iceland has been a failure, and the laboring people are in great distress. Eight hundred have migrated to Canada.

The appointment of 100 new postal money order offices has been postponed on account of the lack of clerical force in the office of the auditor.

A newspaper correspondent is informed that Governor Hayes, "unquestionably does intend, if he is elected, to put Mr. Bristow and Mr. Jacob D. Cox into his cabinet."

Any quantity of money can be had to back Tilden in Morrissey's club room. There is one bet offered of $10,000 against $6,000 to be taken in bulk that Tilden is the next President.—Ex.

A New York hat manufacturer began business poor, accumulated a large fortune, bought an estate on the Hudson estimated at $500,000, employed twenty two servants to take care of it, and has just gone into bankruptcy.

The Central Pacific Railroad Co. intend, at the close of the exhibition, to donate their entire exhibit to some museum or educational institution, possibly the museum at the Central Park, New York.

This was the speech of a New York colored Democrat: "The Grant party rulers are funny friends of ours. After we had become freedmen, and had earned a little money, they set up a beant ball banking system. We were invited to put our money into the Freedman's bank. Where is that bank, and where is our money now? The handwriting of the Almighty has appeared on the wall of the palace of Belshazzar Grant, and the time of his fall is at hand."

Such nonsense as this is put in the mouth of a negro woman by a Republican paper.

Chillen, did you hear it?
We've again back
Into slavery again.
Yaller folks an' black!
Massa Linkum's dead,
Massa Grant an' all,
Case a great reformer's
Come on in the canawl!

Chorus—O de Lord of mercy!
Be dat reason all!
Do dey put us back again,
Case of dat canawl.

The American Journal of Medical Science has the following in regard to sunstrokes: "It is not really a sudden stroke. There are preliminary symptoms that, if they are heeded, would enable one to avoid the attack. The temperature rises and the individual perspires, becomes thirsty and feels very much exhausted. These symptoms until the temperature of the body reaches 101 degrees Fahrenheit, the skin becomes dry, the sufferer feels terrible oppression, undergoes violent palpitation, and experiences overburdening sense of coming death. This condition of sunstroke, fatiguing, utterly prostrating as it is, may be entirely recovered from, but in higher stages the brain is thought to be the seat of lesions that may have permanent effect on its functions. These are supposed to be inflammatory, and to leave the sufferer liable to mental diseases. It is consequently the duty of whoever feels the premonitions to succumb at once, rather than fight the fatigue and depression until it tends in permanent injury. All persons working in the open air will do well to remember this."

WHITE SHUTTLE SEWING MACHINE.

When once used will retain its place forever.

WE EXCHANGE MACHINES.

Send your old-fashioned, cumbersome, heavy-running, noisy-killing machine to us, and we will allow you $25 for it, as part payment for one of ours.

IT IS CELEBRATED FOR ITS ADVANTAGES. IN THAT IT IS ONE OF THE LARGEST SEWING MACHINES MANUFACTURED—ADAPTED ALIKE TO THE USE OF THE FAMILY OR THE WORKSHOP. IT HAS THE LARGEST SHUTTLE, WITH A DESIGN THAT HOLDS ABOUT A SPOOL OF THREAD.

THE SHUTTLE TENSION IS ADJUSTABLE WITHOUT REMOVING THE SHUTTLE FROM THE MACHINE OR ON CHANGING THE THREAD.

THIS MACHINE IS SO CONSTRUCTED THAT THE POWER IS APPLIED DIRECTLY OVER THE NEEDLE, THUS ENABLING IT TO SEW THE HEAVIEST MATERIAL WITH AN EQUALLED EASE. IT IS VERY SIMPLE IN ITS CONSTRUCTION, DURABLE AS IRON AND INGENUOUSLY PROVIDED WITH MEANS FOR TAKING UP LOOSE MOTION, SO THAT IT IS GUARANTEED EVERY MACHINE FOR 3 YEARS.

IT IS THE LIGHTEST AND EASIEST-RUNNING MACHINE IN THE MARKET. IT IS ALSO THE MOST ELABORATELY ORNAMENTED AND PRETTIEST MACHINE EVER PRODUCED.

WITH ALL THESE ADVANTAGES, IT IS SOLD FROM $15 TO $25 LESS THAN OTHER FIRST-CLASS MACHINES.

THE LIGHT-RUNNING
"Old Reliable"
HOWE SEWING MACHINE!

POINTS OF SUPERIORITY:

Simplicity and Perfection of Mechanism.
Durability—will last a life-time.
Range of Work—Without Parallel.
Perfection of Stitch and Tension.
Ease of Operation and Management.
Self-adjusting Take-up.
Adjustable Head, &c., &c., &c., &c.

IN RANGE OF WORK THIS MACHINE CANNOT BE EQUALED. WILL WORK equally well on thick or thin goods, from gauze to heaviest heavier coatings, or even leather, without change of needle, tension or thread. We will warrant them to do this!
Our fine work is equal to any, and our heavy work excels that of any other machine in the world. The Machine makes

THE CELEBRATED LOCK-STITCH,
(the stitch invented by Mr. Howe), alike on both sides. The tensions are positive for both upper and lower thread. The shuttle tension is upon the thread as it leaves the shuttle, and not upon the bobbin as in most machines, and this tension is invariable, whether the bobbin be full or nearly empty. It is obtained by turning a screw in the shuttle, and can be changed in a moment, without taking out the work, breaking the thread or threading through holes. What we claim, in substance, is that this is an HONEST MACHINE.

And if put in your family will do any and all of your work perfectly, will last a life-time, is a willing and ready servant, and is not subject to FITS. Persons who have tried all machines are unanimous in declaring this to be the easiest learned of any in the market.
In the majority of cases our customers learn from the instruction book without further aid.

EVERY MACHINE WARRANTED!

If you are thinking of buying, and are prejudiced in favor of any particular machine, at least examine the "HOWE" before you purchase.

POETRY.

FATHER, HELP!

Father teach me how to pray,
How to ask for what I need,
So to live that every day
Shall be Thine in thought and deed!

Father, help me every hour,
Grant me grace for every day,
So to live that by Thy power,
I may put all sins away!

Father, let Thy will be mine,
All my will absorbed in Thee,
Let the graces in me shine—
Gifts of mercy unto me!

Father, fill my heart with love,
Keep it pure and free from sin,
That its thoughts thou canst approve,
So that peace may enter in!

Father, keep me evermore!
Keep my heart at peace with Thee,
Let Thy Holy Spirit pour
Its reviving breath on me!

—F. G. Wheeler

MISCELLANEOUS.

PLUCKY YANKEE GIRLS.

The Boston Globe relates an instance of strength and sailor pluck in two young ladies living on the Massachusetts coast.

At the launch of the steam yacht, Laura, at North Weymouth, a heavy party between the yacht and the tug, and there was imminent danger of the yacht being blown on the opposite shore by the strong wind then prevailing. The people on both boats frantically shouted for a boat to take a line to the tug, which, owing to the shoal water, could not approach within two hundred yards of the yacht. Notwithstanding there were more than a score of men rowing along the shore, they seemed paralyzed by the unexpected catastrophe, and not one volunteered.

At this moment, a skiff containing two ladies, shot out from the shore, and passing under the stern of the yacht, one of the ladies caught and held the hawser, while the other, Miss Lizzie Cook, of Quincy, pulled for the tug. Any one who has pulled against a steady wind, towing a heavy rope, will recognize the task the young ladies had undertaken. Every moment the sinking rope was dragging heavier, and the strength of the fair rower was decreasing; the steamer backed toward the skiff until she grounded; the result seemed problematical; the lady gained only inch by inch, and just as it appeared certain that she was exhausted and must give up the struggle, the thousands of anxiously watching eyes were relieved to see the men on the tug reach the skiff with a boat hook and take the hawser on board. The tug steamed out into deep water, and the stanchest and handsomest propeller yacht ever built in Massachusetts was afloat.

A SHOCKING OUTRAGE.

Our Baltimore correspondent sends us the particulars of a fiendish outrage upon a valuable horse. A few mornings since a party, as yet unknown, entered the stable of Mr. L. W. Trail, of Baltimore, and cut out the tongue of his valuable horse from the roots. The affair is enveloped in a mystery, as Mr. Trail can think of no one with whom he is at enmity. The stable had several other horses in it at the time, but were undisturbed. The discovery was made by a colored hostler, the poor animal still remaining in his stall, the severed tongue lying in a pit outside the stable. There were numerous blood stains in various parts of the stable, and it is thought that the animal was taken out of the neighborhood, and the deed done, then returned. The tongue measures seven inches, and was partly cut then torn out by force. But little blood was found in the manger or on the floor. A veterinary surgeon thinks his life can be saved, but he can never eat anything but slop food. A colored hostler has been arrested on suspicion.—Spirit of the Times.

POOR SOUTH CAROLINA.

THREE WHITE MEN KILLED AND FOURTEEN WOUNDED.

THE U. S. ARMY ORDERED TO SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 14.—The negroes belonging to the State militia had their arms collected near a joint meeting at Camboy nine miles from Charleston, at which by agreement both parties appeared unarmed. A disturbance occurring, the militia obliterated their arms and commenced firing from the bushes, killing three and wounding fourteen whites. Eighty armed whites left the city to secure the bodies and protect the people in that vicinity.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 17.—Intense excitement prevailed here all day regarding the Camboy affair. The bodies of the white men have been recovered to day. They had been stripped of their clothing and hacked and mutilated in a shocking manner. It is feared that several of the wounded will die. One dead negro was found at the scene of the attack, supposed to have been killed by the first volley fired by the black militia. An armed force of the whites are now guarding the white families. The blacks have disappeared from the neighborhood.

THE UNITED STATES ARMY ORDERED TO SOUTH CAROLINA.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.

Gen. W. T. Sherman, Commanding U. S. Army.

DEAR SIR:—In view of the existing condition of affairs in South Carolina, there is a possibility that the proclamation of the President of this date may be disregarded. To provide against such a contingency, you will immediately order all the available force in the military division of the Atlantic to report to Gen. Rucker, commanding at Columbia, S. C., and instruct that officer to situate his troops in such localities that they may be most speedily and effectively in the case of resistance to the authority of the United States.

Respectfully,

J. D. CAMERON,

Secy of War.

FORNICATION AND ADULTERY.

The Jonesboro News says: The case of the State vs. James McGee, alias James Collins, alias J. M. Hancock, was up before the County Court last Friday, before His Honor Judge Doyal. The prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to twelve months in the chain gang.

The facts are briefly these: Collins went from Georgia out to Cherokee county, Ala., and stopped with an old man there who had a wife and three children. Collins remained there eight months, during which time an attachment sprang up between the wife and Collins.

They eloped, took the old man's money, and left him the three children to support. Collins went to Mississippi, married the woman, and wandered from place to place under various names, and finally settled in Clayton, three or four miles from Jonesboro. The old man went in pursuit of the fugitives. He had nothing to guide him but the photograph of Collins. For two long weary years he went on horseback from place to place, now and then getting some faint traces of them. He finally traced them to Georgia, and he traveled from town to town showing Collins' picture, but could hear nothing of his whereabouts. Last week, wearied, dire, worn out, and exhausted, for he is now over sixty years old, he showed Collins' picture in Jonesboro, and found that he lived near this place.

He had Collins arrested, sent the woman to see her children, and prosecuted Collins with above result. On the trial the old man, with tears in his eyes, said he might live with Mary yet.

REPUBLICAN LOGIC.

The Republican campaign logic runs in this way:

Democrat—We charge your party with having aided and abetted the worst form of political corruption, as displayed in the administration of Grant.

Republican—Our National Convention commended Grant to the continued and hearty gratitude of the American people.

Democrat—The country is in urgent need of governmental reform.

Republican—John Logan says that no man who talks about reform has any business in the Republican party.

Democrat—Belknap, Babcock, Robeson, Boss' Shepherd and the rest, certainly indicate the necessity for reformation.

Republican—Not at all. Morton says that we have the purest and most economical civil service in the world.

Democrat—How about the White House connection with the whisky ring?

Republican—Didn't Grant whip the rebels?

Democrat—How about the San Domingo job? y and Brother Orville's Indian speculations?

Republican—Didn't Lee surrender to Grant at Appomattox?

Democrat—How about the District of Columbia ring and the Freedmen's Bank?

Republican—Didn't the rebels fire on Fort Sumter?

Democrat—Why did you throw Bristow overboard at Cincinnati?

Republican—Haven't we nominated B. a Butler in Massachusetts?

Democrat—What have you to say in regard to Blaine's rail-road bonds?

Republican—After Blaine got over his sunstroke he did some mighty good work in Ohio and Indiana.

Democrat—The Democratic House saved $30,000,000 (a tenth of the annual expenditures) for the country.

Republican—That was a Confederate House.

Democrat—Tilden reduced the taxes in New York one third.

Republican—Tilden was a partner of Tweed.

Democrat—A man who has done so well as Governor would be very apt to do well as President.

Republican—Tilden is a Democrat and therefore a traitor.

Democrat—The Democratic party by its platform and candidate, is solemnly pledged to reform.

Republican—The first thing your party will do when it gets into power, will be to pay the rebel debt and return all the negroes to slavery.

Democrat—The condition of South Carolina is not exactly what it should be.

Republican—Wide Hampton was a rebel.

Democrat—So was Mosby.

Republican—But Mosby votes the Republican ticket.

Democrat—Carpet-bag rule has nearly ruined the South.

Notice to Better up of Club.

Persons sending us a club of ten subscribers and $10.00, will receive an extra copy gratis for one year. For a club of twenty for six months and $20.00, will also receive an extra copy free for six months. This is a rare opportunity, and every one wishing a cheap readable newspaper, should subscribe at once.

Having purchased a good outfit, we were prepared to do all kinds of job work at reasonable figures, such as letter heads, envelopes, visiting cards, posters, all kinds of blanks and Baptist Minutes.

A NATURAL MISTAKE.

This morning a gentleman entered a shop on Fifth street, and asked the clerk:

"What is the price of knit undershirts with breast pockets?" He added:

"I travel a great deal and carry large amounts of money, and I think that idea of pockets an excellent one, and I am surprised that some one has not thought of it before."

"Really, sir," replied the clerk, "I don't think myself it would be a good plan, but I am sorry to say we have none, and I did not know that there were any made."

"You did not?" said the customer, "Well, that's singular. They are also exhibited in your own window, and I caught my eye as I was passing."

"You must be mistaken," said the clerk. "I know every article in the store."

"But I am not," persisted the gentleman. "Step around and see for yourself."

The wondering shopkeeper did as requested. He stepped briskly to the front of the window, looked in, then looked at the gentleman, and then thought, and acted as though he had just felt a sudden pain in the stomach, and then rumbled a handkerchief into his mouth, and stepped back behind the counter.

"Well,"

LOCAL NEWS.

Winter has come and the wood chunter is happy.

Chestnuts only one dollar and a half per bushel in market.

The musical robin red breast is on his winter tour again.

For the past few days we have been having rain in abundance.

We have concluded not to organize a fire company in Dahlonega.

Fiddlers are as thick in Dahlonega, as they are said to be in "Fiddler's Green."

We call the attention of our readers this week, to a change in the prospectus of the Ellijay Courier.

We learn that three applicants were received into the Baptist Church at this place on last Sunday.

The hydraulic ram at the Findley mine has been trying to "ram" itself out of existence, but completely failed.

We noticed a dead hog in the edge of the old Master Ground this week. Supposed to be the effects of cholera.

Thanks to that clear-minded gentleman for the compliment paid The Advertiser on Saturday evening last.

The marshal, with a posse of hands are now putting the roads, within the corporate limits, in good condition.

A full supply of warranty deeds, together with a complete assortment of various other blanks, for sale at this office.

We learn that work on the Bear-den's Ford bridge is being pushed briskly forward, and is rapidly nearing completion.

We are glad to see that the "circus-goers" have all returned right side up. They were perfectly delighted with the show.

Ten persons were arrested in White county a few days ago, by U. S. Deputy Marshal Findley, charged with illicit distilling.

The official vote of the 32nd Senatorial District stands as follows: Asbury, 903; Boyd, 669; West, 338. Asbury's majority, 234.

A lighted lamp was accidentally overturned at the residence of Capt. Woodward a few nights ago, but fortunately did not explode.

Mr. H. D. Gurley, of the firm of H. D. Gurley & Bro., left for the city of Atlanta on Thursday last, to lay in their fall stock of goods.

We inadvertently omitted to make the proper change in the date of our last issue. The oversight was caused by changing the day of publication.

The report of firecrackers can be heard almost daily in the outskirts of town. Is not this in direct violation of the town ordinance. We think so.

We are at a loss to account for the non-appearance upon our exchange table of the Atlanta dailies. Why is this? Off to the Centennial, we guess.

We see from the Ellijay Courier that Mr. Pass and a Mr. Ledford, had a difficulty in Morganton a few days ago, in which the latter was shot in the leg. Pass was arrested.

Since the setting in of the cool, frosty mornings, nicker fishing has commenced, and judging from the number of fine strings which are brought to town, it is attended with right good results.

We call attention this week to the announcement of Mr. John Castleberry. From all reports Mr. Castleberry bids fair to run a good race, and we see no reason why our sister town should not come in for her share of the county honors.

The N. G. A. College can truly boast of two "giant students," physically as well as mentally. It is natural good Luck on the part of one, but we are, really, unable to account for the enormous dimensions of the other, unless it is attributable to Earl-y rising.

Several illicit distillers were arrested in Gilmer county recently.

Our marriage notice of last week should have read Cade Bryan, instead of James Bryan.

Obituary notice of Mrs. Martha London is crowded out of this issue, but will appear in our next.

BOOT AND SHOE MENDING.
All work in this line left at Capt. Woodward's store will receive immediate and prompt attention. Sept. 22-44

We will venture the assertion that there is a sufficient number of "possums" in the immediate vicinity of Dahlonega, to feed "Old" John Robinson's animals for a week.

A buggy containing two gentlemen, passed through our town on Wednesday last, en route for Porter Spring. It strikes us that this is rather late for summer visitors to the mountains.

We notice quite a number of old students in town this week, who have been off teaching a three months school. Among them are, Messrs. Coffey, Gurley, Erwin, Earl, Williams, and many others that we are not acquainted with.

We had a pleasant call from Mr. Charlie Thomas, representing one of the most popular wholesale grocer houses in the city of Atlanta, on Wednesday evening last. Charlie, as usual, wearing a genial smile, and his success in the mountains very encouraging.

We are pained to announce the death of Mr. Wm. Brookshire, which occurred in Gaddistown on the 18th inst. Mr. Brookshire, on the night previous to his death, ate a hearty supper before retiring, and next morning was found dead in his bed.

This progressive journal, the Macon Telegraph & Messenger, made its appearance upon our exchange table, which we place upon our exchange list with pleasure. We also notice that sprightly agricultural paper, the Georgia Grange, both of which are valuable acquisitions to our list of exchange.

No clue has yet been discovered that will throw any light upon the cause of the sinking of Lord's Boat, or that would lead to the detection of the guilty parties, if it really was the work of some miserable miscreant. The owners, so far have been unable to raise the boat from its present resting place.

We hope to be able, by our next issue, to give something more definite.

Mr. F. W. Hall has returned from market, whither he has been for the past few days, laying in the most complete stock of fall and winter goods ever brought to Dahlonega.

This company is having an additional store room added to their already commodious establishment, which, when completed will be one of the largest dry goods and grocery houses in the place.

The Atlanta Daily Times has the following pertinent sentence: "Put it down that the town in Georgia which cannot support a newspaper is either on the extreme of poverty or ignorance." We are pleased to say, however, that we have no room for complaint, as our efforts in the building up of The Advertiser have been rightly appreciated by the citizens of Dahlonega and the county generally.

We were informed by one of our citizens some days ago, that he was fished to kill a pet or yard dog, because of the frequent and destructive raids made upon his poultry yard by that seemingly harmless animal. It is strange, but nevertheless true, that hardly a day passed, but what this pet sheep would kill and eat from one to two chickens, with as much relish as would a hawk.

"WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH OUR EDITOR?"

This caption we find in the Signal of last week. In answer to the query we will simply say that nothing is the matter. The trouble seems to be that a "mutton head" has turned up where there was no occasion for its presence. It is not necessary to "scrutinize" very long or closely to discover that we did not use a capital "C" in spelling the beverage, and she (he) can have Coffee as much as she (he) likes.

MINING NEWS.
We have nothing definite yet from the JONES VEIN, but report has it that they have lost the vein. They are, however, actively at work trying to strike it again, and express the belief that they will be able to do so in a few days.

The mill at the LAWRENCE SHAFT is being run day and night, for the present, with no material change either way. The ore that is taken out at present is very good, with no visible signs of giving out.

Some blasting was necessary to be done at the FINDLEY VEIN, which left it bare with a "glittering broadside." The ore taken out at this vein is steadily increasing in quantity and quality. They stripped the vein with fine results, and are still taking out ore equally as good.

The new mill at this mine is running now daily, and the yield is pretty good.

There seems to be no complaint on the part of the owners for want of laborers—even experienced miners—as there are numbers here from all parts of this and adjoining States in quest of work.

Briefs.
Old John Robinson showed two days in Atlanta to 18,636 people. Total receipts, $8,340; expenses, $3,300; net profit for two days, $5,040.

A special from Dalton says a young white man was run over and frightfully mangled, on the East Tennessee and Virginia railroad, at or near Moon creek a few days ago. His head was severed from his body, and his right hand and left foot were smashed to pieces. Three freight trains passed over his body.

The health officers of Savannah and Brunswick, warns absent citizens from returning till official notice is given that it will be safe to do so.

Savannah has received $88,000 up to date.

One hundred wagons, loaded with cotton, made their appearance in Atlanta, one day last week.

The Agricultural Bureau of Georgia costs each citizen a cent and a quarter per year, and last year saved the farmers $559,000.

The Georgia Senate has forty-three Democrats and one Republican.

The most destructive fire which has visited Louisville for years occurred a few days ago. The loss will exceed $600,000 with very heavy insurance.

At Glen Locke, Pa., a negro woman named Baker killed three of her children aged two, four and six years, and an infant was found nearly smothered under bed clothing heaped upon its head. The children were mangled with a club.

It is stated on Tweed's arrival in New York he will be placed in the custody of the Sheriff. In the meantime he will be allowed no communication with any one.

A dispatch from New York dated 23rd says: The long continuance of the fog which has prevailed in this locality seriously impeded travel. The mails were late this morning, trains behind time, and ferry boats made long and tiresome trips.

A heavy fog was prevailing on the Hudson and the sound. About 8 o'clock this morning the fog lifted a little and several vessels which had been anchored at the quarantine all day yesterday managed to get to their wharfs at ten o'clock.

The fog grew denser again and the steamers and other vessels that arrived at Sandy Hook were obliged to anchor. Two Hoboken ferry boats came in collision a few yards from the ferry. One was damaged badly.

August Flower.
The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from Dyspepsia and Liver complaints.

More than seventy-five per cent of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects such as sour stomach, sick headache, indigestion, constipation, palpitation of the heart, heart burn, water-brash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, loss of spirits, &c. Go to your Druggist, J. W. & W. A. Burnside, and get a 7-cent bottle of August Flower or Sarsaparilla for 10 cents. Try it—two boxes will relieve you.

DO YOU WANT HEALTH?

Why Will You Die?—Death, or what is worse, is the inevitable result of continued suspension of the menstrual flow. It is a condition which should not be trifled with. Immediate relief is the only safeguard against constitutional ruin. In all cases of suppression, suspension or other irregularity of the "courses," Dr. J. Bradford's Female Regulator is the only sure remedy. It acts by giving tone to the nervous centres, improving the blood and determining directly to the organs of menstruation. It is a legitimate prescription, and the most intelligent Doctors use it. Prepared by J. H. Bradford, druggist, Atlanta, Ga., $1.50 per bottle, and sold by respectable druggists everywhere.

Boon to Suffering Females.
LA GRANGE, GA., March 29, 1870.

Bradford & Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Dear Sirs:—I feel pleasure in stating that I have used for the last twenty years the medicine you are putting up, known as Dr. Bradford's Female Regulator, and consider it the best combination ever gotten together for the diseases for which it is recommended. I have been familiar with the preparation both as a practitioner of medicine and in domestic practice, and can honestly say that I consider it a boon to suffering females, and can but hope that every lady in our land, who may be suffering in any way peculiar to their sex, may be able to procure a bottle, and their sufferings may not be relieved, but they may be restored to health and strength.

With my kindest regards,
W. B. FERRILL, M. D.

Briefs.

The famous Modocs are rapidly disappearing, and will soon be but the shadow of a name. After the execution of Capt. Jack, they were removed to a reservation in the Indian Territory, on the border of Missouri. Climate influences have proved very unfavorable, and in three years' time they have lost fifty-eight from their total number one hundred and fifty-three. There is no physician upon the reservation, and the light diseases like whooping-cough prove fatal. They suffer greatly with home-sickness, and their fatality may be that loss of heart to which Indians and other races like the Malays are subject, and which renders them peculiarly liable to sickness.

One hundred and fifty bales of cotton were burned at the Georgia Railroad cotton yard, in Augusta the other day.

A negro made a Democratic speech at Silverton, S. C., the other day, and was followed home and shot down by a Radical negro.

The negroes fired the woods in the Rock Pond District, Decatur county, on the day of election, in order to keep the Democrats from the polls. The Democrats fought the fire by reliefs, and sent up 163 men, jority from the precinct.

Past month there was eighty-nine fires in New York city, with a loss of $363,405 and an insurance of $1,078,700.

During 1975, 20,000 persons were confined for crime in Massachusetts. The proportion of crime to population in that State, is something like 33 per cent. higher than it is in Ireland.

The wool clip of the country in 1875 was nearly two hundred million pounds, whereas, in 1869 it was only sixty-five millions. In 1875 the country bought about fifty million dollars' worth of woolen goods and eleven millions' worth of wool.

A mercantile agency in Toronto professed to make, through its system of espionage, a correct statement of the status of a retail dealer. The presumed knowledge was sold to a wholesale dealer, who sold to the retailer on the purchased hypothesis that he would receive the money for his goods. The retailer absconded, and the wholesaler recovered $324 at law from the mercantile agency, and a higher court has affirmed the judgement.

The Journal says that Grant took a fresh cigar on hearing of Harrison's election. Now that Blue Jeans is elected, Ulysses might as well return to his usual drink.

James Ryan, forty-five years old, a merchant in Peterboro, Ont., a man with $500,000, was put on trial for wife murder last week at the Assizes in that town. The case closed on Tuesday night, when the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to death on the 21st proximo. The crime was committed on the 8th of May last. The prisoner had been drinking for some days and quarreling with his wife, a very accomplished lady, highly connected. In the evening he called her to his side and suddenly stabbed her through the heart with a tanner's knife which he had obtained at his tannery near by. She staggered out of the house into the street and fell dead on the sidewalk. The prisoners counsel at the trial to-day were Hon. Matthew C. Cameron, Q. C.; J. D. Armour, Q. C.; and W. H. Scott, Q. C. The sentence of the court will undoubtedly be carried out.—N. Y. World.

PAINTS, OILS,

WINDOW GLASS,

FINE WINES AND LIQ.

QUORS, FOR MEDICAL USE, etc.

Also Proprietors of the following popular remedies:

PONCE DE LEON BITTERS.

A pleasant remedy for Indigestion and other diseases arising from a disordered condition of the stomach, and of decided advantage to persons recovering from any debilitating sickness.

ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER.

A pure and concentrated essence of Jamaica Ginger, and for sick headache, nervous debility, cholera morbus, &c., is an invaluable remedy.

EUREKA NERVE AND BONE LINIMENT.

A sovereign remedy for bruises, sprains, cramps, stings of insects, stiffness of the joints, neuralgia, etc. While I do not claim that it will cure old chronic cases of rheumatism, I do say that it will give decided relief, and I have information of perfect cures, having been made by the use of it.

HOWARD'S WORM CONFECTIONS.

A pleasant, safe and effectual remedy for worms—the confections not having any unpleasant taste. Children are fond of them.

HOWARD'S IMPROVED CONFECTION POWDERS.

For horses cattle and hogs. Horses low in flesh, like bound, and in bad health generally, will be largely benefited by the use of these powders. Given to hogs occasionally they will keep in good health and not be liable to cholera.

HOWARD'S CHICKEN POWDERS.

A certain prevention (and cure if used in time) of gapes, cholera and other diseases of chickens, turkeys, &c.

The above remedies for sale by country merchants generally.

THE LIGHT-RUNNING

"Old Reliable"

HOWE SEWING MACHINE!

POINTS OF SUPERIORITY:

Simplicity and Perfection of Mechanism. Durability—will last a life-time.
Range of Work—Without Parallel. Perfection of Stitch and Tension.
Ease of Operation and Management. Self-adjusting Take-up.
Adjustable Head, &c., &c., &c., &c.

IN RANGE OF WORK THIS MACHINE CANNOT BE EQUALLED. WILL WORK equally well on thick or thin goods, from gauze to heaviest beaver coatings, or even leather, without change of needle, tension or thread. We will warrant them to do this! Our fine work is equal to any, and our heavy work exceeds that of any other machine in the world. The Machine makes

THE CELEBRATED LOCK-STITCH,

(the stitch invented by Mr. Howe), alike on both sides. The tensions are positive for both upper and lower thread. The shuttle tension is upon the thread as it leaves the shuttle, and not upon the bobbin as in most machines, and this tension is invariable, whether the bobbin be full or nearly empty. It is obtained by turning a screw in the shuttle, and can be changed in a moment, without taking out the work, breaking the thread or threading through holes. What we claim, in substance is, that this is an

HONEST MACHINE,

And if put in your family will do any and all of your work perfectly, will last a life time, is a willing and ready servant, and is not subject to VIBRATIONS. Persons who have tried all machines are unanimous in declaring this to be the easiest learned of any in the market. In the majority of cases our customers learn from the instruction book without further aid.

EVERY MACHINE WARRANTED!

If you are thinking of buying, and are prejudiced in favor of any particular machine, at least examine the "HOWE" before you purchase.
